1 - Magnum Failla Hirsch Vineyard Pinot Noir 2013
estimated value: $200

100

This is a fascinating set of wines from Failla and Ehren Jordan. With this many selections of Chardonnay, Pinot Noir and Syrah, what comes across is an excellent representation of the year. After 5 years of creating cult-worthy Zinfandel for Turley Wine Cellars, winemaker Ehren Jordan & co-owner Anne-Marie Failla launched Pinot powerhouse Failla Winery. Ehren's vinous past also includes working in (and drinking through) the Rhone as an apprentice to Jean-Luc Colombo. This would prove to be time well spent honing his craft and developing a passion for cool climate viticulture.

1 - bottle Vérité La Joie 2002
estimated value: $300

101

A Sonoma County Stunner! The 2002 Vérité La Joie is a Cabernet Sauvignon-based blend of four Bordeaux varietals that has reached its prime drinking window. This wine received rave reviews from the professionals including a rating of 98 when it was re-tasted by Robert Parker in 2012, which matched his original rating given in 2005.

Araujo Estate Duo

estimated value: $250

102

1 - bottle Araujo Estate Eisele Vineyard Syrah 2005

1 - bottle Araujo Estate Eisele Vineyard Syrah 2006

Earning 93 points from Robert Parker, the 2005 “displays an attractive meaty character along with smoky blackberry fruit and a hint of charcoal. Soft and lush with French-like elegance as well as complexity, and a delicious, long, supple finish, it will be drinkable over the next 7-8 years or longer.” Of the 2006, Robert Parker noted, “The sexy, opulent, floral, blackberry and black currant-scented and flavored, medium to full-bodied 2006 Syrah Eisele Vineyard displays a seductive quality that is hard to ignore. I would opt for drinking it over the next decade.”

1 - Magnum Donelan Obsidian Vineyard Syrah 2013

estimated value: $300

107

96-100 points from Robert Parker! From the winery's website, "Obsidian Vineyard has always yielded a magnificent wine, but 2013 raises the bar for sheer irresistibility. What is compelling about this wine isn't its abundance of fruit, but the unique balance of aromas: peat moss, leather, anise and mocha. This wine's palate is where richness and fullness meet minerality and structure, creating an exciting wine, enjoyable even in its youth and for many years to come. If this exceptional wine wasn't exciting enough, as they were finalizing the 2013 blend, the Donelan family purchased Obsidian Vineyard. They are thrilled to now call this special site "home" and to toast to their very first estate vineyard."

6 - bottles Nickel & Nickel John C. Sullenger Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon 2004 in Original Wooden Box

estimated value: $530

109

The home vineyard of Nickel & Nickel, Sullenger Vineyard is situated behind the winery in the heart of Oakville and named for John C. Sullenger who settled the farmstead in the 1880s. The vineyard's 30 acres of clay loam soil are planted exclusively to Cabernet Sauvignon. This wine focuses on ripe fruit flavors of plum and cherry with hints of blackberry, deepening its flavor and complexity. Notes of coffee and herb, coupled with sweet, toasty oak, add to the finish. There is considerable volume in this wine, combined with graceful tannins.

Custom-Made, Vintage-Style Washington DC Street Sign

estimated value: $110

110

An American-made, hand-crafted piece by Kolene Spicher, an artist who is known for her unique style and flair. The sign, made from wood, paper, metal, and glass, was assembled by hand in Lancaster, Pennsylvania. This multicolor giclée print, with a vintage look and feel custom-designed for Urban Dwell, was professionally framed and is ready for hanging. (25.5"W x 7.5"H)

1 - Magnum Shafer Hillside Select Cabernet Sauvignon 1984

estimated value: $500

111

“Shafer’s Hillside Estate Vineyard consists of 54 acres all on steep, amphitheater-like, rocky outcroppings and knolls. It receives the full benefit of southeasterly sunlight, and enjoys the afternoon breezes that blow up from the San Francisco Bay channel. An unusual geographic feature, this vineyard is basically a box canyon. The top soil is virtually non-existent as the bed roots that go into the white tofu volcanic soil base rarely extend more than 18 inches before hitting bedrock. This no doubt is a significant reason for the intense flavors achieved by the Hillside Select Cabernet Sauvignon.” -Robert Parker

1 - bottle Taylor Fladgate Vintage Port 1992

estimated value: $250

115

Rated 100 points from Robert Parker: "Taylor's 1992 Vintage Port is unquestionably the greatest young port I have ever tasted. It represents the essence of what vintage port can achieve. The color is an opaque black/purple, and the nose offers up fabulously intense aromas of minerals, cassis, blackberries, licorice, and spices, as well as extraordinary purity and penetration. Yet this is still an unformed and infantile wine. If Chateau Latour made a late-harvest Cabernet Sauvignon, I suspect it might smell like this. In the mouth, the wine is out of this world, displaying layer upon layer of concentrated black fruits backed by well-integrated tannin and structure. This is a massive, magnificently rich, full-bodied port that will be far more flattering in its youth than were such Taylors as the 1983, 1977, or 1970. It possesses awesome fruit, marvelous intensity, and lavish opulence, all brilliantly well-delineated by the wine's formidable structure. This monumental 30-50 year port is a must-purchase for port aficionados!"

Six-Pack of Rhone Wines
estimated value: $200

119

- 1 - bottle Chateauneuf du Pape Clos Du Mont-Olivet 2012
- 1 - bottle Chateauneuf du Pape Domaine Font De Michelle 2004
- 1 - bottle Chateauneuf du Pape Grand Reserve Phillipe de Saint-Cyrille 2011
- 1 - bottle Gigondas Domaine Notre Dame des Pallieres 2012
- 1 - bottle Vacqueyras Colline St. Jean 2010
- 1 - bottle Vinsobres Les Cornuds Famille Perrin 2010

Along with Bordeaux and Burgundy, Rhone Valley wines are some of the world's greatest red wines. The Northern Rhone produces powerful, aromatically complex and ageworthy red wines, generally in very limited quantities, from the noble Syrah grape. The Southern Rhone is a nearly bottomless source of somewhat more rustic and often even richer blends based on the high-alcohol Grenache grape, in a style that can only be described as more "southern" in flavor--that is, Rhone wines offering a richer mouth feel, a more roasted and sometimes liqueur-like fruit character, and notes of wild herbs and spices.

Sofitel Legend The Grand Amsterdam

estimated value: $800

124

Enjoy a two-night stay for two in a Superior Room at Sofitel Legend The Grand Amsterdam. The Sofitel Legend The Grand Amsterdam is an historical site and in quite a unique manner, the history of Amsterdam is reflected in the past and present of the building. There were originally two convents here, St. Cecily's Convent at the northern part of the property and St. Katherine's Convent to the south. The Grand was built in three sections, as is still evident from the two courtyards and central element, and in its design one can detect the basic structure of the two convents. The tiny tower perched so pertly on the north side of the rooftop is reminiscent of St. Cecily's Convent founded here in 1411.

Amsterdam was a city filled with monasteries and convents. On old maps of the city, you can pick them out by their courtyards and walled gardens, always marked by a chapel. Even in the 20th century, their remains are still in evidence in the floor plan of The Grand, in the patterns of several other parts of the city, and in any number of street names in this vicinity. Your stay includes complimentary access to the swimming pool, sauna, and steam bath at SoSPA. You will also enjoy breakfast for two in Restaurant Bridges inspired by Ron Blaauw.

Reservations required. Not valid on December 31, 2016. Expires April 30, 2017.

Lewis Cellars was established in 1992 by Randy and Debbie Lewis. Randy comes from a prior career of professional car racing - he was a serious racer having competed in a variety of races including the Formula Three in Europe, the Formula 5000 and five Indianapolis 500's. "Cuvee L is only blended when we have the components to create a wine of greater intensity, depth and distinction than our Reserve Cabernet. Dark, rich and extracted. Shows layers of ripe currant, blackberry, espresso-tinged oak and subtle nutmeg-hazelnut and cedary oak flavors. Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Franc." - winemaker notes

Brooklyn Slate Company, Slate Cheese Board and Wooden Cheese Knife

Brooklyn Slate Company is a collaborative effort from Brooklyn graphic designer Sean Tice and Parsons graduate student Kristy Hadeka. After visiting Kristy's family slate quarry in upstate New York in the spring of 2009, the two grabbed a few pieces for use as all-purpose boards back home in Brooklyn. They found a number of purposes for the slate – as trivets for tea kettles and hot dishes to coasters for beers – and began gifting pieces to friends. The response was so overwhelmingly positive that the two struck out to produce a line of slate products. You'll be all set for a night of wine and cheese with this party-ready duo!

1 - bottle Château d'Issan 2008

1 - bottle Château Pontet Canet 2008

The 2008 Château d'Issan received 92 points from Robert Parker, who called it “a wonderful success of the vintage [which] exhibits a dark plum/garnet/purple color as well as abundant aromas of flowers, Asian spices, jammy plums and black currants. Broad, savory and medium to full-bodied with sweet tannin and an evolved, already delicious, complex style, this cuvee will age nicely for 10-15 years.” The 2008 Château Pontet Canet earned 96 points and rave reviews from Robert Parker as “a candidate for the ‘wine of the vintage,’ [which] boasts an opaque purple color as well as copious aromas of sweet blueberries, blackberries and black currant fruit intertwined with lead pencil shavings, subtle barbecue smoke and a hint of forest floor. Full-bodied, with fabulous richness, texture and tremendous freshness. Give it 5-8 years of cellaring and drink it over the following three decades. Bravo!”

6 - bottles Mitolo ‘Serpico’ Cabernet Sauvignon 2005

estimated value: $300

131

“The 2005 Cabernet Sauvignon Serpico (100% McLaren Vale fruit) was treated like Amarone with the grapes picked relatively underripe and green, then dried for seven weeks before they were fermented. The result is a distinctive, full-bodied Cabernet with no pruny or raisiny characteristics whatsoever. Its fresh acidity and lively backbone support a wine of enormous richness and intensity, offering up classic crème de cassis notes intermixed with white chocolate, damp forest, cedar, and toasty oak. Full-bodied, opulent, powerful, and totally dry, with a sweet, rich mid-section.” 94 points -Robert Parker

Cork & Fork Argentina Wine Tasting Event for Ten

estimated value: $500

132

The last twenty years have witnessed a major remaking of the Argentine wine industry from one geared to quenching the insatiable domestic appetite for table wines to one that yields wines of exquisite sophistication. Today, Argentine wines exhibit a wonderful marriage of power and finesse that satisfy the most discriminating wine lovers. Cork & Fork offers you an opportunity to familiarize yourself with some of the most delicious, yet affordable wines of Argentina. You will taste a Cabernet Franc that is guaranteed to leave you speechless and an array of Malbec blends which include some of the other varietals that do so well in Argentina: Bonarda, Tempranillo, Petit Verdot, Cabernet Sauvignon, Cabernet Franc, and Merlot. Ed Sorenson, born and raised in Buenos Aires, will host the event. His passion in life (aside from his wife Giulia) is rugby, a sport in which he excels as a referee, having been appointed to referee major international matches. His advice to wine tasters is similar one he gives referees: “Be prepared, but not prejudiced.”

Expires March 31, 2017. Subject to availability.

Sojourn Cellars Package

estimated value: $625

200

1 - Magnum Sojourn Cellars Rodgers Creek Vineyard Pinot Noir 2014
Sojourn Cellars Comparative Tasting Seminar for Up to Ten Guests in Sonoma

Sojourn Cellars produces terroir-driven wines from exceptional vineyards around the North Coast of California. Rodgers Creek Vineyard is well-suited for growing Pinot Noir. It sits high on a ridge right in the heart of the Petaluma Gap and takes the full brunt of wind and fog that define this cool climate zone. The vines grow in light, chalky volcanic ash soils on steep inclines. This causes natural vine stress and gives the wine high concentration levels. In the resulting wine is a fabulous expression of the vineyard site and its unique soils. It is a showy wine - very expressive and forward, with smooth textures and a lingering finish. Distinctive aromas of mushroom and soy overlay layers of red fruit flavors, earth and hints of rosemary. After enjoying the 2014 Pinot Noir, it's time to plan your trip to Sojourn Cellars in Sonoma and experience the Sojourn experience for yourself! This unique, private wine tasting features flights of single vineyard and appellation Pinot noir, Cabernet Sauvignon and Chardonnay served in elegant Riedel stemware and shared in a relaxed, intimate setting.

Reservation required.

- 1 - bottle Clos Saint Jean Châteauneuf-du-Pape Deus-Ex Machina 2005
- 1 - bottle Clos Saint Jean Châteauneuf-du-Pape Vieilles Vignes 2007
- 1 - bottle Domaine Bois de Boursan Chateauneuf-du-Pape Cuvée des Felix 2005
- 1 - bottle Domaine de Ferrand Chateauneuf-du-Pape 2007
- 1 - bottle Domaine de Pegau Chateauneuf-du-Pape Cuvée Réserve 2007
- 1 - bottle M. Chapoutier Chateauneuf-du-Pape Croix de Bois Rouge 2006
- 1 - bottle Ogier Clos de l'Oratoire des Papes Chateauneuf-du-Pape 2007

“Châteauneuf-du-Pape’s wide array of aromas and flavors are reminiscent of a Provençal marketplace while its texture—rich and round, sumptuous and opulent—is virtually unmatched by most of the wines of the world. Châteauneuf-du-Pape is a remarkably flexible wine with food, in part because it suits so much of today’s Mediterranean-influenced cooking, while the absence of new oak in many Châteauneufs means they can be enjoyed alongside an even broader range of lighter dishes such as fish, veal, and poultry. But the greatest appeal of Châteauneuf-du-Pape, beyond its food-friendly qualities, expansiveness, generosity of flavors and sumptuous texture, is the almost addictive attraction of its combined intellectual and hedonistic elements. That’s what attracts me the most and undoubtedly accounts for Châteauneuf-du-Pape’s rapidly growing popularity.” -Robert Parker

Passionfish (the West Coast One)!

estimated value: $100

202

Passionfish, located in Pacific Grove, CA, was voted best restaurant in Monterey County in 2011 and 2012. It is described as food from the heart and is beloved by locals for its sustainable seafood, slow-cooked meats, organic greens, and superb wines. They believe there is an art to food, and an art to life, and that behind both is passion. That's why they created Passionfish. They believe in the vivid flavors of fresh, local ingredients. They select daily from small farms and farmers markets, and from sustainable farms and fisheries. They believe in great wine, made accessible to all and their list draws wine lovers from around the world, and we offer its vintages at retail prices.

Expires June 2016.

1 - Magnum Conterno Fantino Vigna del Gris, Barolo 2008

estimated value: $190

203

“The 2008 Barolo Vigna del Gris is gorgeous. Layers of dark red fruit, flowers, spices and minerals emerge as the wine opens up in the glass. The 2008 possesses lovely mid-palate pliancy and juiciness, along with beautifully integrated tannins and exceptional polish. Floral notes add lift and brightness. I particularly like its energy. This is an especially open vintage for the Vigna del Gris. It will be delicious over the next 10-12 years, give or take.” 93 points - The Wine Advocate.

- 1 - bottle Sea Smoke Southing Pinot Noir 2013
- 1 - bottle Sea Smoke Streamside Chardonnay 2013
- 1 - bottle Sea Smoke Ten Pinot Noir 2013

Sea Smoke Cellars is a California cult classic. The production of Sea Smoke is limited and can be difficult to find, joining 'the List' guarantees your allocation. For years, vintners have coveted a stretch of land in the western end of Santa Barbara's Santa Rita Hills AVA known to have the perfect microclimate, soils, and exposure to grow world-class Pinot Noir. In 1999, fulfilling a long-held dream of owner Bob Davids, this sought-after stretch of land became Sea Smoke Vineyard. Sea Smoke's unique combination of sun, fog, soil and meticulous farming result in top quality Pinot Noirs that are lush, elegant and expressive. Sea Smoke is one of a handful of California Pinot Noir producers whose fruit-powered style has quickly captured the attention of pinotphiles.

Martinez Port Duo

estimated value: $125

207

1 - bottle Martinez Vintage Port 1970

1 - bottle Martinez Port 1985

Martinez has no historical association with any one quinta. Instead, the grapes are sourced mainly from the Pinhão and Rio Torto valleys, where many small farmers produce top quality fruit which they sell to the Symingtons. Charles Symington, head winemaker, said that without the tie to a specific quinta and terroir-driven style, Martinez is an opportunity to "just have some fun making interesting, satisfying wines" from the grapes supplied to us by small producers.

Sharpening for 15 Knives from DC Sharp

estimated value: $200

208

DC Sharp practices the centuries-old method of sharpening blades by hand on Japanese waterstones (aka whetstones). This method ensures your blade is returned with the sharpest edge possible while minimizing the amount of metal that is removed from the blade. These methods also allow them to repair bent, chipped and twisted blades, and the ability to customize your edge to your specific needs. DC Sharp is located in Union Market and is the only shop in the DC metropolitan area that specializes in the sharpening of Japanese single-bevel chisel-ground blades.

Expires May 1, 2017.

1 - 3L Paul Hobbs Pinot Noir Russian River Valley 2013

estimated value: $265

209

Paul Hobbs Winery sprouted from the passion of one man: Paul Hobbs. Paul wasn't satisfied just becoming Head Enologist of Robert Mondavi's Opus One in 1981, or becoming Vice-President/Winemaker of Simi Winery in 1989. No, he wanted to create his very own grapes, on his own land. This passion led to the creation of Paul Hobbs Winery in 1991. Highlighting the terroir of the Russian River Valley, this deep ruby colored wine has aromas of cherry, raspberry, cola, forest floor and vanilla. Rich and round in the mouth, the fine tannins and fresh acidity give a long, generous finish. Commended by the 2015 Decanter World Wine Awards and awarded Silver in the 2015 International Wine & Spirit Competition.

1 - bottle Rivers-Marie Gioia Vineyard Pinot Noir 2011

Thomas Rivers Brown and his wife Genevieve Marie Walsh have quietly developed some of California's most cherished wines. Their wines are available by mailing list only and that has been full for some time so this is a great chance to try these wines. "The Chardonnay is gorgeous in this vintage. Lemon, almonds, savory herbs and nectarine all burst from the glass. Rich, layered and strikingly beautiful, the 2011 stands out for its pure balance. A touch of botrytis-inflected sweetness adds an exotic flair on the close. This is a highly representative example of Sonoma Coast Chardonnay. The Cabernet Sauvignon is gorgeous in this vintage, boasting striking depth, radiance and balance, all in the mid-weight style of the year." For the Pinot Noir, "licorice, savory herbs, mint and anise are some of the aromas and flavor that add complexity on the finish. - The Wine Advocate

- 3 - bottles Marqués de Griñon Cabernet Sauvignon Dominio de Valdepusa 2010
- 1 - bottle 500 ml Marqués de Griñon Extra Virgin Olive Oil, Arbequina
- 1 - bottle 500 ml Marqués de Griñon Extra Virgin Olive Oil Duo
- 1 - bottle 500 ml Marqués de Griñon Extra Virgin Olive Oil, Picual
- Curtis Stone “Go with The Flow” Polished Stainless Steel Olive Oil Can, 24-Ounce

Marques de Griñon is an 800-year-old estate in the region of Toledo, now led by Carlos Falco and his daughter Xandra. Inspired by his time studying at UC Davis in the 1970s, Carlos returned home to Spain where he became a pioneer of modern viticulture in Spain. He was the first to plant Syrah and Petit Verdot in Spain and is recognized as a well-known producer of top quality pago wines. Olive oil is one of Carlo's great passions and he has spent many years and many resources to obtain the highest quality extra virgin olive oil. Under Xandra's direction, Marques de Griñon has developed into one of the top olive oils in the world. Awarded 98 points from Flos Olei for the second year in a row, Marques de Griñon was also celebrated as mill of the year in 2013. The close attention to detail and the exacting standards of the Falco family have resulted in a truly exceptional olive oil. Named “Duo,” this oil is a blend of two of Spain's most famous olives. This extra virgin Olive oil is a blend of 90% Arbequina and 10% Picual, made with olives that are fully ripe to give it a fruity aroma with hints of almond and banana. It is delicate and balanced with a mild intensity and length. The aromas of Marques de Griñon oil are exceptionally vivid and bold with notes of green tomatoes, verdant grasses, and artichoke and almond. Its finish is pleasantly pungent, revealing the oil's freshness. Use this splendid oil generously to adorn favorite recipes that call for an anointment of extra virgin olive oil. To preserve the oil's properties, keep in a cool place away from direct light. The timing of the harvest and the types of olives used to make Marques de Griñon is critical for obtaining top-quality oil. The harvest lasts for only five or six days, and the olives have a high antioxidant activity that helps preserve the integrity of the oil. Duo is a Gold Medal winner at the 2013 Los Angeles Olive Oil Competition!

Ready for a little Bordeaux trivia courtesy of The Wine Cellar Insider? Château Bellevue in St. Emilion is known to have great terroir. The ancient Romans were aware of this. In fact, when walking the vineyards, it's easy to spot remains of the original plantings left by ancient Roman vintners. Château d'Angludet, is one of the oldest Bordeaux wine properties. In fact, Chateau d'Angludet can be traced all the way back to 1150! One of the few Bordeaux chateaux with three words in their name. Château Haut-Bages Libéral came across its unusual moniker for very simple reasons. The property is situated on the hills of Bages, a tiny area between Pauillac and St. Julien. Liberal is the name of the family that owned the chateau during the 18th century. With only twelve hectares, (a huge increase from their previous 8 hectare size) Château Ferriere is the smallest 1855 Classified Medoc Bordeaux property. Now time to drink!

“Patz and Hall has a long and enviable track record, making Chardonnay and Pinot Noir from some of the very finest single vineyards in Northern California. They rarely miss a beat, and the wines are “sure bets” regardless of vintage conditions. The current group of 2011s and early-released 2012s once again prove the consistency of these wines, which cut a very attractive synthesis in style between the more austere Burgundian model and the riper, more fruit-laden California style. As one can see, these are consistently well-made wines from Patz and Hall that merit significant attention from all serious wine consumers.”

Wine in Italy is nearly as essential as eating or sleeping. It is so ubiquitous there that there are about one million producers of wine in the country and nearly one thousand varieties of wine grapes are grown there. There are vineyards in all of Italy's regions from the Alps in the north to the islands in the south totaling over two million acres.

Adding to sheer quantity and domestic enthusiasm for wine, Italy also boasts every possible microclimate that could be desirable for fine wine production. From the cold foggy mountains of Piedmont to the blazing heat of the south, Italy combines all major wine growing climates within a single country.

- 1 - bottle Small Vines Wines Estate Cuvee Pinot Noir 2012
- 1 - bottle Terrano Cali 351 Pinot Noir 2007 Napa
- 1 - bottle W.H. Smith Maritime Pinot Noir 2007 Sonoma Coast

In 1989 Walt and Joan Flowers, with great expertise in agriculture and nurseries, turned their attention and passion to the beautiful Sonoma Coast and its perfect position for growing both Chardonnay and Pinot Noir. Their success in this venture is quite well known in the wine collector world now, and they produce some of the most striking Sonoma wines around. Matt Taylor has winemaking pedigree. He started his domestic winemaking career as the assistant to Rod Bergland at Joseph Swan, later getting the top job at Araujo Estate and now making wine for Reuling Vineyard in addition to making the wines for his eponymous label starting in the 2006 vintage. The Small Vines is described as “Brilliant red. Sexy aromas of raspberry liqueur, potpourri and smoky minerals, with an Asian spice flourish adding complexity. On the palate, vibrant red fruit and floral pastille flavors put on weight with air while maintaining vivacity. This silky, approachable pinot noir finishes with excellent clarity and smooth, well-knit tannins that contribute shape.” International Wine Cellar 91 points The 2007 Terrano Cali has a deep purple hue, the wine jumps out of the glass with aromas of wild blackberries and forest brush as well as earthy notes and deep toasty mocha. The W.H. Smith received 94 points from the Wine Enthusiast, “This has been a great bottling from W.H. Smith, and it is the most interesting and complex of the winery’s current releases. Very dry, its elegantly silky structure frames intricate flavors of baked cherry, cherry skin, red currant, root beer, licorice and cedar, with an elaboration of Asian spices and a sprinkle of cocoa. Really fascinates as it changes in the glass.”

1 - bottle Big Basin Vineyards Grizzly - Santa Cruz Mountains Estate 2012
1 - bottle Big Basin Vineyards Syrah Coastview Vineyard - Gabilan Mountains 2012
Private Tasting for Eight at Big Basin Vineyards in Saratoga, California

Three bottles from Big Basin to enjoy at home, including the 2013 Pinot Noir which is “medium-bodied, elegant, and lively on the palate with fine tannin.” - 91 points. The 2012 Syrah “offers gorgeous notes of caramelized dark fruits, plums, olive, licorice and white pepper.” - 94 points. Finally, the 2012 Grizzly offers a “tight, fresh bouquet of Bing cherry, raspberry, watermelon, flowers and peppery herbs. This gives way to medium-bodied, fresh, lively wine that has bright acidity and a clean, classy finish.” - 90 points -The Wine Advocate. Then plan your trip to Big Basin Vineyards with seven friends. Big Basin is about one hour and forty minutes from San Francisco. The tasting will include Roussanne, Pinot Noir, Grenache, and Syrah. At Big Basin Vineyards, their mission is to create wines that reveal the complex nuances of the vineyards that inspire them- cool climate, ocean-influenced, mountain vineyards.

6 - bottles Mitolo 'Serpico' Cabernet Sauvignon 2005

estimated value: $300

237

"The 2005 Cabernet Sauvignon Serpico (100% McLaren Vale fruit) was treated like Amarone with the grapes picked relatively underripe and green, then dried for seven weeks before they were fermented. The result is a distinctive, full-bodied Cabernet with no pruny or raisiny characteristics whatsoever. Its fresh acidity and lively backbone support a wine of enormous richness and intensity, offering up classic crème de cassis notes intermixed with white chocolate, damp forest, cedar, and toasty oak. Full-bodied, opulent, powerful, and totally dry, with a sweet, rich mid-section." (94 points) -Robert Parker

3 - bottles Delectus Winery Mutti's Pride Cabernet Sauvignon 2007

238

Mutti's Pride is a blend of the top two vineyard sites selected by winemaker Gerhard Reisacher after two years of barrel aging. The Mutti's Pride was made in tribute to Gerhard's mother Elisabeth who used to visit from Austria every year to help out during harvest. "Mutti" is Austrian for mother. The result is a gorgeous wine that flaunts intense complexity, unyielding character and a vivacious finish.

2 - bottles Château Cos d'Estournel 1986

2 - bottles Château Ducru-Beaucaillou 1986

The Cos d'Estournel received 95 points from Robert Parker, "The 1986 is a highly extracted wine, with a black/ruby color and plenty of toasty, smoky notes in its bouquet that suggest ripe plums and licorice. Evolving at a glacial pace, it exhibits massive, huge, ripe, extremely concentrated flavors with impressive depth and richness. The Ducru-Beaucaillou received 92 points from Robert Parker, "The 1986 Ducru possesses a dark ruby color with purple nuances. This is an intensely concentrated Ducru-Beaucaillou with formidable aging potential." These bottles were purchased on release by our donor over 25 years ago and have been properly stored by her ever since.

estimated value: $750

303

1 - Magnum Annum Cabernet Sauvignon 2012

1 - Magnum Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon 2012

1 - Magnum Pedregal Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon signed by David Ramey

Ramey Wine Cellars is dedicated to creating high quality, handcrafted wines with balance and richness from the area's finest vineyards. Their philosophy is their process: it's about respect for the land. Nature guides their process and they listen closely. It's about terroir. The vineyards are selected for their ability to sustainably produce the highest quality fruit. The soil must be right for the climate, which must be right for the terrain, which must be right for the varietal. It's about harmony- the marriage of Old World methods with New World innovations. It's about a family of wines crafted for the now, but even better with age. Bold, but in check, sensual, these are wines in perfect balance.

Original, Framed, 300-Year-Old Map of Southwestern France

estimated value: $600

304

An original, framed, 300-year-old map of southwestern France published around 1715/20 showing the areas of Gascony, Guyenne, Gironde and a part of Languedoc. The map was produced by Guillaume Delisle (1675-1726), one of the most important French cartographers of the time, and published by Pierre Mortier. Delisle would serve as the Royal cartographer to the King of France and also produce some of the most important maps of America during his time.

This map shows various châteaux and vineyards in the Bordeaux region, as well as the area that produces Armagnac. This is an early edition of the map and carries a greater value than those published later in the 18th century. A great piece of history for anyone loving France and wine!

- 1 - bottle Hall Wines Craig's Cuvee 2012

This collection will provide a wonderful side-by-side comparison from the 2011 and 2012 vintage of three great Hall Wines. Hall Wines pride themselves on being leaders in innovation, while being cognizant of their beginnings. The 2012 Bergfeld received 93 points from the Wine Spectator, "Offers pure, rich, explosive fruit, with tiers of blackberry, wild berry, cherry and spice flavors, delivering touches of black licorice and cedary oak. Glides along with a touch of toasty oak and espresso, tightening on the finish. Drink now through 2027." The 2012 Kathryn Hall received 97 points from Robert Parker, "Dark and dense, this is sourced from the winery's own Sacrashe property in the hillsides of Rutherford, as well as Bergfeld Vineyard. The wine has a concentrated and jammy quality that doesn't step over the edge. It offers anise, blackberry, black currant and dried herb around a soft, rounded mouthfeel and long finish. Enjoy through 2026." Craig's Cuvee was conceived by Craig Hall with the intention to craft an unconventional, appealing red blend for everyday enjoyment among family and friends. This wine is made in limited quantities and allows them to experiment, playing up the most unique and captivating qualities of the vintage.

Pungo Wine Preserver

309

The Pungo is the world's premier wine-preservation system for by-the-glass consumption. Pour wine directly through the cork via a patented two-chamber needle that allows wine to flow out as medical-grade argon displaces it. Wine stays perfectly preserved indefinitely. The Pungo provides a smooth yet responsive flow, operates at very low pressures, and serves more than twice as many bottles per argon cartridge as the closest competition. Even better, it does all this while not venting wine volatiles during operation. The Pungo works with both synthetic and natural corks, as well as screw-cap bottles. Sealing pins (included) allow an unlimited number of bottles to be preserved and stored concurrently. These pins provide a proper seal instead of relying on the cork to re-seal itself. Made of the highest-quality materials available, the Pungo is designed for commercial environments and will provide years of trouble-free service.

This case is in the original wooden box. “The 2007 Chateauneuf du Pape Vieilles Vignes is blockbuster stuff that has overflowing kirsch, blackberry, incense, lavender and Asian spices flowing to a sexy, full-bodied, multidimensional wine that has impeccable balance and knockout length. While I’ve a slight preference for the 2010, the 2007 has fabulous mid-palate density and an incredibly polished mouthfeel that’s hard to resist. It too is drinking well now, but will have 15 to 20 years of overall longevity when all is said and done.” (95 points) -The Wine Advocate

1 - bottle Quinta do Noval Vintage Port 1975
estimated value: $350

313

Quinta do Noval lies in the Douro Valley of Northern Portugal. The vineyards here cling to steep hillsides in the winding valleys of the Douro River and its Tributaries. Though Noval made its reputation in the 1930’s by having arguably the most sensational Port of the 20th century, the fine wine has been produced here since 1715 and today still exhibits the quality, character, and noble flavors unchanged for centuries. Port expert, Richard Mayson describes the 1975 as “pale-to-mid garnet colour with a broad, browning rim; very open, sweet and soft in the mouth.”

Dinner and Excess with Theise in Boston

314

You and a guest will enjoy dinner with Terry Theise at a restaurant in Boston, complete with rare wines from Terry's private cellar. Terry Theise has been a wine importer and writer for thirty years. His first love is German Riesling which was once a staple at the finest tables in America but had been largely forgotten when Terry began working with a group of small German growers in 1985. Twenty years ago he discovered vastly underappreciated and underrepresented Grüner Veltliner, Riesling, St. Laurent, Blaufränkisch (and even more obscure varieties) from top growers in Austria. Due in no small part to Terry's work, the landscape of Austrian wine in the United States has shifted from nonexistent to classic, noble, and necessary. A decade and a half ago his love of honest and compelling wines from small growers brought him to Champagne. Terry assembled a portfolio of Grower Champagnes - a category that then hardly existed - and it remains today without equal. Terry's approach is vastly divergent from that of many of his colleagues. The growers he works with and the wines he selects must speak to something genuine and real beyond their basic flavor. His wines have in common a distinct character, a point of view, vitality, and a voice. They express the land, the grower, and the time in which they were made. These wines convey to the drinker a sense of beauty, harmony, meaning, and above all pleasure. While in Boston you will stay for one night in executive classic accommodations with breakfast for two at the XV Beacon, which is centrally located on Boston's historic Beacon Hill.

Date to be mutually agreed upon by Terry Theise and the auction winner.

EMH Vineyards Black Cat Magnum Trio

estimated value: $650

315

- 1 - Magnum EMH Vineyards Black Cat Cabernet Sauvignon 2006
- 1 - Magnum EMH Vineyards Black Cat Cabernet Sauvignon 2009
- 1 - Magnum EMH Vineyards Black Cat Cabernet Sauvignon 2012

EMH's vineyard is situated on the valley floor near Pickett Road in Calistoga, just east of the Silverado Trail. Pocketed by the Palisades Mountains to the north and Diamond Mountain to the south, the tiny vineyard of just under an acre produces outstanding Cabernet Sauvignon fruit. It enjoys the climate of its more well-known neighbors including Araujo's Eisele Vineyard, Frediani Vineyards, and Kenefick Ranch. EMH's owner, Merrill Lindquist purchased the property in 1999, fulfilling a dream to own a country house surrounded by vineyards. From the 2000 harvest she kept a half-ton of grapes, and had them crafted by into EMH's first wine. It was named "Black Cat" after Sparkles, the black cat who shares the property with the owner and her daughter Emily. The remaining tonnage was sold to another winery. That wine was placed in a double-blind tasting at Jim Gallagher's Wine Seminars of San Francisco, and it placed ahead of many high profile Napa Cabernets. A decision was made to stop selling grapes to other wineries, and to reserve all EMH grapes for an increased production of "Black Cat" wine. With the required time in the barrel and bottle, it was only with the 2003 vintage that production reached one hundred cases.

5 - bottles Heitz Martha's Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon 1985

estimated value: $1,250

320

94 points from Robert Parker, who noted the “explosive richness and ripeness, as well as gobs of sweet fruit presented in a full-bodied, powerful style” of this 1985 Cabernet Sauvignon. Ready to enjoy now!

If you were an oenophile in the 1970s, you may still have that hypnotic bouquet of eucalyptus imprinted in your memory. The smell, of course, belonged to Heitz's Martha's Vineyard Cabernet, a wine whose rich, opulent palate would have made it legendary, even had its nose not been so distinctive. First made by Joe Heitz in 1966, Martha's Vineyard was arguably the most coveted Cabernet at the birth of modern California wine. And after the great 1966, magnificent vintages in 1968, 1970, 1974 and 1985 secured Martha's position as the finest of its generation. Here is your chance to get one of those magnificent vintages!

321

“A prodigious offering is the 1999 Celtico Rosso (a blend of 60% Cabernet Sauvignon and 40% Merlot) and the 1999 Pignolo (100% Pignolo). It may be expensive, but it is a blockbuster effort of extraordinary richness and intensity. The 1999 Celtico Rosso, which spent 15 months in French oak before being bottled unfiltered, came in at an amazing 15% alcohol, all of which is hidden by layers of concentrated blackberry and creme de cassis fruit. Smoky graphite, floral, and pain grille notes emerge from the bouquet. The wine possesses a terrific entry, a multi-dimensional mid-palate, and a finish that lasts for nearly 40 seconds. This corpulent, concentrated yet incredibly well-balanced heavyweight should drink well for 15 years. It is a tour de force.” (94 points) -The Wine Advocate

estimated value: $450

322

“Chimney Rock’s 2009 Cabernet Sauvignon Ganymede Vineyard is huge. Black cherries, plums, spices, herbs and pencil shavings all explode from the glass in this large-scaled, voluptuous wine. Though a bit wild at the outset, the Ganymede finds a more finessed, refined level of expression with time in the glass. There is plenty of personality and sheer character in this powerful, deep Cabernet Sauvignon. Anticipated maturity: 2017-2029.” 94 points - The Wine Advocate

98 points from Robert Parker! "Dalla Valle was the first winery to demonstrate what heights Cabernet Franc could reach in the valley with their Maya proprietary blend, which averages 50-55% Cabernet Franc and the rest Cabernet Sauvignon. The 2012 Maya is a spectacular offering. The 2012 Maya is already revealing great complexity with notes of forest floor, licorice, truffles, red and blackcurrants and a hint of graphite. The beautiful aromatics are followed by an equally majestic, full-bodied, multidimensional wine of great class and elegance. This sensational effort should drink well for 25-30 years."

White House Correspondents & You!

estimated value: $500

330

You will get to break bread with Jonathan Karl, Robert Draper and Mike Allen at Stanton & Greene for a rare opportunity to chat with the insiders of the fourth estate! Jonathan Karl was named ABC News' Chief White House Correspondent in December 2012. He regularly contributes to all broadcasts, including Good Morning America, World News Tonight with David Muir and Nightline. In addition, he reports for all of ABC's digital properties, including the popular political blog The Note and hosts a weekly digital show for ABC News/Yahoo! News. Karl has broad experience covering U.S. politics, foreign policy and the military. Robert Draper is a contributing writer to New York Times Magazine and National Geographic and a correspondent to GQ. He is the author of several books, most recently the New York Times bestseller Dead Certain: The Presidency of George W. Bush. Mike Allen is the chief White House correspondent for Politico. Prior to Politico, he was at Time magazine where he was their White House correspondent. Before Time, he spent six years at The Washington Post, where he covered President Bush's first term, Capitol Hill, campaign finance, and the Bush, Gore and Bradley campaigns of 2000. This amazing meal (lunch or dinner) will be at Stanton & Greene, just two blocks from the US Capitol and Supreme Court. Stanton & Greene is the go-to watering hole for pols, staffers and Capitol Hill residents, and evokes the easy elegance of the Capital city's bars of the early 20th century.

Mutually agreeably date. Expires April 2017.

1 - 3L Joseph Phelps Insignia 2007

estimated value: $800

333

99 points from Robert Parker! "One of the top Insignias yet produced." "Aged 24 months in new French oak, this infant 2007 exhibits an inky/purple color along with notes of graphite, spring flowers and smoky oak. This full-bodied, classic Insignia reveals fabulous depth, ripeness, texture, viscosity and richness. Still young and unformed, it should evolve for 25 or more years. Perhaps I should just go ahead and give this 2007 a three-digit score as it is a profoundly great Cabernet Sauvignon-based effort. The production was 13,500 cases of this 100% estate fruit blend of 88% Cabernet Sauvignon, 8% Merlot and 4% Petit Verdot. The alcohol came in at 14.5%. The growing season was nearly ideal, with early bud break, generous flowering, a bountiful crop size, and summer weather that was warm and dry with no significant heat spikes."

1 - Magnum Flowers Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir 2013

estimated value: $100

336

We are so excited that Greg Miller, Estate Director of Flowers Vineyards & Winery, is here for his first Heart's Delight! We hope you have an opportunity to meet him and taste the Sea View Ridge Pinot Noir and the Camp Meeting Ridge Chardonnay that he brought with him tonight. Here is your chance to take home a magnum of the Sonoma Coast Pinot Noir, which is described by the winery as having a "deep garnet hue. Aromas of wild strawberries, cranberries, savory dried herbs, violet and forest floor lift elegantly from the glass. On the palate, flavors of Bing cherry, raspberry, and pomegranate are framed by fine-grained tannins, coastal minerality and bright acidity that culminate in a lengthy finish." 2013 was a wonderful growing season along the Sonoma Coast!

2 - Magnums Beaux Freres The Upper Terrace Pinot Noir, Ribbon Ridge 2007

estimated value: $400

338

“Deep red with a bright rim. Pungent aromas of red and dark berries, Asian spices and musky herbs. Broad, fleshy dark berry flavors gain freshness with air and pick up notes of allspice and candied rose. Manages to be both rich and lively, finishing with excellent energy and lingering spiciness. This really hangs onto the palate.” - 92 points Stephen Tanzer, International Wine Cellar
