700 Château Mouton Rothschild Trio estimated value: $1,450

- 1 - bottle Château Mouton Rothschild 1973
- 1 - bottle Château Mouton Rothschild 1994
- 1 - bottle Château Mouton Rothschild 2006

In honor of our first growth, we have put together, with the help of some generous donors, a lovely little tribute. Château Mouton Rothschild is known for bringing the most celebrated artists of their day together to create their wine labels and this trio is no exception to that. The 1973 Château Mouton Rothschild label was designed by Pablo Picasso. The 1973 vintage is also special because it was the first vintage that Château Mouton Rothschild was classified as a first growth. Dutch painter Karel Appel designed the 1994 label. The 1994 vintage was rated 91 points by Robert Parker and "...exhibits a dense, saturated purple color, followed by a classic Mouton nose of sweet black fruits intermingled with smoke, pain grillee, spice, and cedar." British painter Lucian Freud deigned the 2006 Château Mouton Rothschild label. Rated 96 points by Robert Parker, he says that the 2006 Château Mouton Rothschild "has quite brilliant delineation with blackberry, graphite, here an almost cold slate-like scent. The palate is harmonious with the carefully judged acidity, fine-grain tannin and immense detail on the finish."

701 3 - bottles Château Cheval Blanc Le Petit Cheval 2010 estimated value: $750

"The best second wine I have ever tasted from Cheval Blanc is the 2010 Le Petit Cheval. This wine is essentially three-fourths Merlot and the rest Cabernet Franc. Rivaling the brilliant 2009, thirty percent of the production from this monstrously sized estate made it into this wine, which offers up plenty of white chocolate, cassis and mulberry as well as a hint of roasted herbs. With fleshy, round flavors, full-bodied texture and an amazing finish, this is no second wine, and considerably better than some of the Cheval Blancs of the 1960s and 1970s!" 93 points – Robert Parker

703 Lucien et Andre Brunel

estimated value: $300

6 – bottles Lucien et Andre Brunel Les Cailloux Châteauneuf-du-Pape 1998

"...the 1998 Châteauneuf du Pape reveals a surprisingly youthful, lively ruby color to the rim to go with classic notes of dried Provencal herbs, cured meats, kirsch, leather and exotic spices. These carry to a full-bodied, ripe, concentrated Châteauneuf du Pape that's fully mature, yet still has plenty of fruit, sweet tannin and a big, low acid, decadently styled finish." 92 points - The Wine Advocate

705 1 - Magnum Château Latour 1989 estimated value: $1,250

“This is so decadent and exciting on the nose, with very ripe fruit, tobacco, meat and cedar. Full-bodied, offering amazing raspberry fruit in the core of the palate. Ultrapolished, velvety tannins wonderfully coat every inch of your palate. This will age for years ahead, but it’s so lovely now.” 94 points – The Wine Spectator

- 1 - bottle Domaine Louis Latour Corton-Grancey Grand Cru 2005
- 1 - bottle Domaine Marquis d'Angerville Volnay 1er Cru Champans 2005

If you've been listening, you've heard the clamor for the 2005 red Burgundy vintage. According to Allen Meadows of Burghound.com, "2005 is quite simply the best top to bottom vintage that I have ever seen, period, full stop...2005 is a brilliant vintage with virtually nothing to dislike (except perhaps the prices)..." Steven Tanzer of the International Wine Cellar announced, "This is, pure and simple, the finest red Burgundy vintage of my professional career (I began tasting red Burgundies in depth with the '78 vintage)." David Schildknecht, reviewing Burgundy for the Wine Advocate, reported that the vigneron in Burgundy "stated that this was a vintage of unprecedented quality, as fine a one as they had ever experienced. I share that view from my 25 years of experience with young Burgundy." This lot was assembled by a great supporter of Heart's Delight who every year puts together at least one very special case. As Burghound exhorted, "In short, mortgage your house, sell your dog, hock your spouse (but don't forget where, you'll eventually need someone to enjoy these wines with!) or do whatever you have to do but don't miss the best wines of the vintage or you will I believe live to regret it."

710 4 – 375 ml Graham’s Vintage Port 1977

estimated value: $250

“Graham is another great port house, producing one of the deepest-colored and sweetest styles of vintage port. Along with Taylor and Fonseca, Graham has probably been the most consistent producer of great port in the post- World War II era. Their tawnys are quite good rather than exceptional, but their vintage ports are truly sublime and sumptuous.” 93 points - Robert Parker

711 1 – 3L Silver Oak Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon 2012

estimated value: $645

“Our 2012 Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon artfully combines the classic elegance of the old world and the ripe fruit of California. It displays an opaque garnet color with a bouquet driven by fruity aromas of blackberry liqueur. It also offers the savory components of sage and molasses. These complex aromatics are complemented by sandalwood and nutmeg characteristics indicative of American oak aging. This is a well-structured wine with a compact and rich mid-palate buttressed by silky tannins and generous acidity. Given proper cellaring, this wine will provide drinking pleasure through 2037.” – Winemaker Notes

713 2 - bottles Château Latour 1955 estimated value: $3,000

"A spectacular Latour...the deep garnet-colored 1955 reveals some amber at the edge. It remains tannic, but its extraordinary perfume of smoked meats, dried herbs, cedar, black fruits, underbrush, and leather is seductive. It is full-bodied, with a sweet, intense mid-palate, plenty of power, and decades of life remaining." 94 points - Robert Parker

716 Aubert Lauren Vineyard Chardonnay Vertical estimated value: $800

- 1 - bottle Aubert Wines Lauren Vineyard Chardonnay 2009
- 1 - bottle Aubert Wines Lauren Vineyard Chardonnay 2010
- 1 - bottle Aubert Wines Lauren Vineyard Chardonnay 2011
- 1 - bottle Aubert Wines Lauren Vineyard Chardonnay 2012
- 1 - bottle Aubert Wines Lauren Vineyard Chardonnay 2013
- 1 - bottle Aubert Wines Lauren Vineyard Chardonnay 2014

What a great opportunity to taste through these cult favorites made by one of the hottest chardonnay producers in California. Aubert's first Estate Chardonnay is named after proprietors Mark & Teresa Aubert's daughter, Lauren. Located in what they call the "golden hills" of Forestville, the Lauren Vineyard features their favorite clonal selections of Chardonnay, and typically produces the most concentrated wine in the repertoire. The gravelly Goldridge soil series is unique and adds purity and lovely perfumes to this wine.

717 4 – bottles Opus One 1981 estimated value: $1,000

From the start-up days at this famous joint venture between Robert Mondavi and Bordeaux's Baron Philippe de Rothschild. The 1981 harvest was one of the earliest in Napa Valley history, after a mild winter hastened an early bud break and a very hot June ripened the grapes quickly. The wine produced that year, a blend of 93% Cabernet Sauvignon and 7% Cabernet Franc aged for 22 months in French oak, wasn't your typical plush style, but instead something leaner and more elegant. - K&L Notes

- 1 - bottle Vérité Le Désir 2008

Seven 100 point wines - it's not luck, it's an obsession at Vérité and you get one of each! In an historic moment, Robert Parker recently announced seven 100-point scores for Vérité's three blends, Le Désir, La Joie and La Muse. This is the first time a Sonoma County winery has received this many perfect scores. The name Vérité, French for truth, stands for wines that reflect their soil with integrity.

722 3 - Double Magnums Château L'Eglise-Clinet 2010 estimated value: $5,000

"This wine will likely be a major superstar with about 10-15 years of cellaring. It was one of the more closed and difficult wines to penetrate and one of probably only a dozen or so 2010s that I only had one chance to taste from bottle, but it is loaded with fabulous raw materials. The 2010 is a profound effort, but it needs to be forgotten for at least a decade. This opaque purple wine offers up notes of caramelized black currant and black cherry candies intermixed with some very high class, subtle vanillin and toast. Hints of licorice, mocha and perhaps even a touch of chocolate are also present in this full-bodied, super-duper, concentrated, classic wine, which has everything in perfect proportions. But in the finish, its whoppingly big tannins kick in and basically announce that drinking this wine now would be infanticide. Look for this wine to last for at least 50+ years." - 96+ points, Robert Parker
