HEART'S DELIGHT CONVERSATIONS

As a part of the Heart's Delight Digital Celebration we are featuring entertaining conversations helping bring the feel of Heart's Delight to life in a year when we aren't able to be together.

Thank you to our kind participants!

Jamie Ritchie's Conversation with Jean-Philippe Delmas of Domaine Clarence Dillon

Jean-Philippe Delmas Domaine Clarence Dillon

Jean-Philippe Delmas is the son of Jean Bernard Delmas and the grandson of Georges Delmas, the third generation of winemakers and managers with Château Haut-Brion. He has a degree from the Bordeaux Faculty of Oenology. Having completed winemaking stints in California, Provence and Champagne, as well as on-the-job training with his father, he joined Domaine Clarence Dillon in October 1994. Jean-Philippe knew the vineyards of Domaine Clarence Dillon, they were his playgrounds during his childhood. Jean-Philippe sees his responsibility as the Château's winemaker as continuing the revolutionary work of his father and grandfather. Jean-Philippe Delmas is a Bordelais, born and raised. The most prominent aspect of Jean-Philippe's personality is his charm, and his dedication to the great wines of Bordeaux.

With a history dating back to 1423, Château Haut-Brion is the oldest and smallest of the original four First Growth Properties in the 1855 classification of Bordeaux wines. Château Haut-Brion, the only first growth owned by an American, was purchased in 1935 by Clarence Dillon. Since this time, Haut-Brion has had the unique good fortune of being owned by four generations of the Dillon family. Today the estate is now managed by Prince Robert of Luxembourg, the great-grandson of Clarence Dillon. Additionally the winemaking duties have been managed by three generations of the Delmas family.

Jamie Ritchie

Worldwide Head of Sotheby's Wine

Jamie Ritchie is Worldwide Head of Sotheby's Wine. He joined Sotheby's in 1990 and has been responsible for expanding Sotheby's wine business from being an auction house with sales based only in London to a multi-channel international wine merchant with 2019 sales significantly exceeding $125 million. Since 1994, he has been based in New York, having started Sotheby's US wine auctions. He launched wine auctions in Hong Kong in 2009 and launched Sotheby's Wine retail business in New York in 2010 and Hong Kong in 2014.

Doug Heye's Conversation with Frederick J. Ryan, Jr., Publisher and CEO of the Washington Post, and author of "Wine and the White House: A History"

Frederick J. Ryan, Jr.

Publisher and CEO of the Washington Post and author of "Wine and the White House: A History"

Frederick J. Ryan, Jr., publisher and CEO of the Washington Post, has been an aficionado of both wine and White House history for most of his life. Growing up in Italy and California, he developed an early interest in wine and its production, studied winemaking and its history, and now participates in a joint winemaking venture in Napa Valley. Ryan's fascination with wine parallels his lifelong interest in the American presidency. He served in a senior staff position in the Ronald Reagan White House and as Reagan's post-presidential chief of staff. Ryan currently serves as chair of the Board of Directors of the White House Historical Association, of the Board of Trustees of the Ronald Reagan Presidential Foundation, and of the Wine Committee of the Metropolitan Club of Washington, D.C.

Whether you're a devotee of presidential history, a lover of wine, or both, Wine and the White House: A History is sure to prove informative and entertaining. The first book of its kind, it is a comprehensive journey through the history of White House hospitality that explores every president's experience of wine. The fully illustrated pages also feature memorable presidential toasts, menus from historic White House gatherings, a catalog of vintages served, and spectacular new photography of the White House glassware collection.

Early presidents recognized the important function wine played in entertaining at the White House. While some appreciated and enjoyed wine, others considered it merely a ceremonial necessity. Still others campaigned to outlaw wine and banned it from the White House; their successors celebrated its return. More recently, all presidents, regardless of whether they enjoyed wine themselves, have used the White House as a venue to showcase the fine wines produced in the United States.

Doug Heye

A veteran of politics since 1990, Douglas Heye has served in leading communications positions in the House of Representatives and United States Senate, the Republican National Committee and the George W. Bush Administration. He is currently a CNN Political Commentator, providing analysis on domestic and international political events. As Deputy Chief of Staff for the Majority Leader of the House of Representatives, Heye garnered on the record bipartisan praise for his team-building, crisis communications and strategic planning abilities. Roll Call named Heye one of the “Fabulous 50,” noting his ability to “set the tone and frame the debate” as someone “in the room when decisions are made” in the Capitol.

Sotheby's EST. 1744

More recently, Sotheby's has expanded into the spirits business achieving the record highest value auction with the $10 million Ultimate Whisky Collection in 2019. Also in 2019, Sotheby's Wine launched the "Sotheby's Own Label Wine Collection" a range of Sotheby's branded wines, which are sold exclusively through their retail businesses.

Mr. Ritchie is one of the world's leading wine auctioneers, holding the records for selling the most expensive bottles of wine and spirits: 1 bottle of Romanée-Conti 1945 for $558,000 in 2018; and 1 bottle of The Macallan Fine & Rare 60 Year Old 1926 for $1.9 million in 2019. Mr. Ritchie continues to conduct Sotheby's wine auctions, donate his services to many benefit auctions, and to lead tastings around the United States. He is a respected authority on the wine market and has been regularly featured in the Wall Street Journal, The New York Times, Financial Times, Los Angeles Times, Forbes and Wine Spectator Magazine.

STAND UP FOR YOUR HEART

Colby Groom

Stand Up for Your Heart Speaker

Colby Groom, now 23 years old is one of the 40,000 babies born each year with Congenital Heart Disease. Colby had back to back open heart surgeries at the ages of eight and nine. While this time was tough for him and his family, even more difficult was getting back to a normal school and social life after the surgeries. Colby struggled academically, physically and socially.

Colby's family tried to turn this negative into a positive by getting him involved with the American Heart Association. At the age of 10 he told his first survivor story on stage. Soon after he was arranging heart walks for his school, helping mentor other "heart" kids and raising money for the AHA.

At age 11, Colby asked his winemaker father if they could make a wine together and donate the proceeds to heart research so that "no kid would have to go through what I went through". With the initial hope of raising $500 Colby found some cabernet grapes online in 2010, and the resulting two barrels of wine, totaling 50 cases, were made. This wine, Colby Red, was named after him.

Today, Colby Red wine is a delicious blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Zinfandel, Shiraz, Merlot and Petit Sirah. The Today Show called it "one of the best red wines we have ever tasted".

Colby Red has proudly donated close to $2,000,000 to heart charities, research grants and heart families in need across the USA. Where possible proceeds are donated back to communities in which the wine was sold.

Colby is now a sought after guest speaker at heart charity events across North America telling his story and journey to large crowds often to a standing ovation. He is also a National Spokesperson for the Children's Heart Foundation, passionately co-chairs their Young Adult Board and sits on the organization's Diversity and Inclusion Task Force and Advocacy Board.

Colby is currently in the process of awaiting acceptances to Law School hoping to attend in the fall of this year. Many on his desired schools are on the East Coast.

Colby's definition of success is "accomplishing your own goals and helping as many people as possible, even if it's something you may not see or feel the results of yourself."

His advice to heart parents is "Trust your child's doctors. Growing up with a CHD is a challenge, do your best to understand when your child needs support and reason, and when they need space and emotions."

LIFE IS WHY

Everyone has a reason to live a healthier, longer life. What's yours?

We want people to experience more of life's precious moments. It's why we've made better heart and brain health our mission. And until there's a world free of heart disease and stroke, we'll be here, working to make a healthier, longer life possible for everyone.

Why? Life is Why.

CONDITIONS OF SALE

The property offered in this sale will be offered and sold by The American Heart Association. Any questions should be directed to the American Heart Association and not to Sotheby's, Inc., ("Sotheby's"), which serves merely as auctioneer for the American Heart Association in conducting the auction sale and participates on the following terms and conditions, as amended by any posted notices or oral announcements during the sale, which govern the sale of all the property offered at the auction:

1. (a) Neither Sotheby's nor the American Heart Association assume any risk, liability or responsibility for the authenticity of the authorship of any property offered at this auction. (b) All Property is sold "as is" and neither Sotheby's nor The American Heart Association makes any representations or warranties of any kind or nature, expressed or implied, with respect to the property, and in no event shall either of them be responsible for the correctness of any catalogue or notices or descriptions of property, nor be deemed to have made, any representations or warranty of physical condition, size, quality, rarity, importance, genuineness, attribution, authenticity, provenance or historical relevance of the property. No statement in any catalogue, notice or description or made at the sale, in any bill of sale invoice or elsewhere, shall be deemed such a representation or warranty or any assumption of liability. Neither Sotheby's nor the American Heart Association makes any representation or warranty, expressed or implied, as to whether the purchaser acquires any reproduction rights in the property. Prospective bidders should inspect the property before bidding to determine its condition, size and whether or not it has been repaired or restored.
2. Any property may be withdrawn by Sotheby's or the American Heart Association at any time before the actual sale without any liability therefore.
3. Sotheby's and the American Heart Association reserve the right to reject a bid from any bidder. The highest bidder acknowledged by the auctioneer shall be the purchaser. In the event of any dispute between bidders, the auctioneer shall have sole and final discretion either to determine the successful bidder or to reoffer and resell the article in dispute. If any dispute arises after the sale, the American Heart Association's sale records shall be conclusive in all respects.
4. If the auctioneer determines that any opening bid is not commensurate with the value of the article offered, he may reject the same and withdraw the article from sale, and if, having acknowledged an opening bid, he decides that any advance thereafter is insufficient, he may reject the advance.
5. On the fall of the auctioneer's hammer, the highest bidder shall be deemed to have purchased the offered lot subject to all of the conditions set forth herein and thereupon (a) assumes the risk and responsibility thereof, (b) will sign a confirmation of purchase thereof and (c) will pay the full purchase price therefore or such part as the American Heart Association may require. All property shall be removed from the premises by the purchaser at his expense that day, if not so removed, will be sent by the American Heart Association at the expense of the purchaser to a public warehouse for the account, risk and expense of the purchaser and such added charges will then be added to the purchase price of the object. If the foregoing conditions and other applicable conditions are not complied with, in addition to other remedies available to the American Heart Association by law, including, without limitation, the right to hold the purchaser liable for the bid price, the American Heart Association at their option, may either a) cancel the sale, or (b) resell the property on three days' notice to the purchaser and for the account and risk of the purchaser, either publicly or privately, and in such event the purchaser shall be liable for payment of any deficiency, all other charges due hereunder and incidental damages.
6. All checks should be payable to the American Heart Association and not to Sotheby's.
7. In the case of bids transmitted by absentee bidders, Sotheby's and the American Heart Association are not responsible for any errors or omissions in connection to such bids.

GLOSSARY OF ABBREVIATIONS

PARCELS/OPTIONS

A parcel is a group of lots of the same type and quantity of wine. There may be some discrepancies between the different lots in a parcel with respect to level, condition or otherwise, and each buyer should refer to the catalogue description for more detailed information. At the auctioneer's discretion, the successful bidder of the first lot in a parcel shall have the option, but not the obligation, to purchase in consecutive order one or more of the remaining lots in the parcel, each at the same successful bid price as the first lot. If any lots in the parcel are not purchased, the auctioneer will open the bidding on the next unsold lot in the parcel and the successful bidder of that lot shall have the option, but not the obligation, to purchase in consecutive order one or more, if any, of the remaining lots in the parcel, each at the newly established successful bid price.

ULLAGES (LEVEL OF WINE)

For Bordeaux, Port and other wines in bottles with defined shoulders the ullage/level is shown, if relevant, by its relevant position in the bottle. Our interpretations are as follows:

- u. - ullage/ullages (levels)
- n. - within neck; the normal level of young wines
- bn. - bottom neck; completely acceptable for any age of wine
- vts. - very top shoulder; completely acceptable for any age of wine
- ts. - top shoulder; usual level for wines over 15 years old
- hs. - high shoulder; typical reduction through the cork, usually no problem
- ms. - mid shoulder; usually some deterioration of the cork and therefore some variation
- ls. - low shoulder; more variable and therefore carries a lower estimate
- bs. - bottom shoulder; very variable, usually a rare or interesting wine with a low estimate

Example: (u. 3hs) means 3 bottles ullaged to high shoulder.

For Burgundy, German and other wines in bottles with sloping necks the ullage is shown in centimetres, measured from the base of the cork.

Example: (u. 2x5cm) means 2 bottles ullaged 5 centimetres.

CAUTIONARY NOTES

- Whilst we do all that is possible to indicate accurately the levels of older wines, such levels may change between cataloguing and sales. This may be caused by the ageing of the cork or by a change in the temperature of the storage conditions or the shipment of the wine.
- There is a risk of cork failure in old wines which must be taken into account by the potential buyer.
- Neither Aulden Cellars nor Sotheby's, as a matter of policy, inspect original cases from the 1990 vintage onwards.
- Neither Aulden Cellars nor Sotheby's will entertain any price negotiation or credit after the delivery is made and returns will not be accepted.
- Under no circumstances will substitutes be provided by Sotheby's; for example in case of breakage, or error of description.

The above table is a guide to the litres of wine per bottle size. Where relevant the figures have been taken from the EEC prescribed litreage for light still wine, sparkling wine and liqueur wine. The different categories have separate implementation dates which, when combined with past variances in bottling quantities of some bottle sizes, means that this should be treated purely as a guide. Should you require the litreage capacity of the wine in any lot, please contact the wine department.

* up to 1978 Jeroboams were generally bottled in 4.5 litre bottles rather than 5 litre bottles.

Château Smith Haut Lafitte Lot - Magnum of 2015 + lunch at SHL

estimated value: $850

1 - Magnum Château Smith Haut Lafitte 2015 (in a beautiful wooden carved box and signed)

Private tour of SHL including a tasting of their greatest vintages in both colors

Lunch with Daniel and Florence Cathiard at La Chartreuse for up to four people

Private tour of their Cathiard Family Estate in Napa

This is a very special package from this dynamic duo! The 2015 vintage is also a very special year as it marks the 25th anniversary of Daniel & Florence Cathiard at the helm of Château Smith Haut Lafitte. To commemorate the special occasion the label on this vintage is black. Not only is this Magnum of the fantastic 2015 Smith Haut Lafitte signed by the Cathiards - as we can see on their lovely video - it also receives nearly perfect scores! 99 points from James Suckling, "Full body and super-integrated tannins that melt into the wine. The quality of the tannins is incredible with fantastic length and mouthfeel. So much concentration and balance at the same time. Such beauty. From biodynamic grapes. This is the greatest wine ever from here. Drink in 2022."

The Cathiards are also offering a very special opportunity for a private tour of Smith Haut Lafitte followed by a tasting of their best vintages. You will join them for a very special lunch at La Chartreuse.

The Cathiards have branched out to Napa Valley when they purchased the Flora Springs estate last year and they invite you to visit Napa where they hope to release Cathiard Family Estate wines within a few years.

Restrictions: Must be 21 to order. Wine is coming directly from Bordeaux on a container due to arrive in June. We will contact you once the item has arrived in DC to arrange shipping through MacArthur Beverages [not able to ship to: AL, DE, IL, IA, KY, MA, MD, ME, MS, ND, NH, NY, OK, PA, SD, TX, UT, VA, VT] Shipping fee will be added to the final cost or available for pick-up by appointment at our Arlington, Virginia office. Visits are subject to availability on mutually agreeable date.

Ever want to learn how to make the already celebratory occasion of popping a bottle of champagne even more exciting? Now this is your lucky day as resident Champagne celebrity (and author of But First, Champagne: A Modern Guide to the World's Favorite Wine), David White, will hold a sabering lesson for you and your friends and will teach you how to saber a bottle of Champagne.

Grower Champagnes are defined as those made by récoltants–manipulants - about 2,000 growers who make their own wines as well as selling grapes to the major Champagne houses. As Terry Theise explains, the récoltant manipulants “handcraft their limited quantities of Champagne from individual villages and parcels where the inherent qualities of the vineyards imprint themselves into the wines. These winemakers are brave souls in an industrialized age: growing, crafting and bottling their own Champagne, offering it to the world as their life’s work.” This is a wonderful opportunity to drink well and support those brave souls!

Restrictions: Must be 21 to order. Château Lagrange 1998 - 5L (in original wooden box)

estimated value: $500

Thank you to the kindness of our friends at Château Lagrange who have kindly allowed us to auction off what would have been in the 2020 live auction - this Jeroboam from 1998! "This dark ruby-colored, elegant, attractive effort offers spicy new oak, medium body, excellent concentration as well as depth, surprising softness, and early appeal." - Robert Parker

Château Brane-Cantenac 2004 - 5L

estimated value: $600

We so appreciate our friends from Brane-Cantenac for generously participating in our auction and sending along this terrific 2004 Jeroboam! "A beauty from the Margaux appellation, this savory, floral, plum, cherry, and black currant-scented 2004 exhibits wonderful sweetness, medium body, and enough fresh acids to provide definition. An ethereal quality results in a pure, seductive wine...How good it is to see this famous estate back on track." 90 points - Robert Parker

Restrictions: Must be 21 to order. Wine is coming directly from Bordeaux on a container due to arrive in June. We will contact you once the item has arrived in DC to arrange shipping through MacArthur Beverages [not able to ship to: AL, DE, IL, IA, KY, MA, MD, ME, MS, ND, NH, NY, OK, PA, SD, TX, UT, VA, VT] Shipping fee will be added to the final cost or available for pick-up by appointment at our Arlington, Virginia office.

Château Guiraud 2010 - 6L (in original wooden box)

estimated value: $750

The wonderful Planty Family have never missed a Heart's Delight and we appreciate that even in this digital setting, they are keeping the tradition alive! This high scoring Imperial is the equivalent to 8 regular bottles of liquid gold! 96 points from James Suckling and 93 points from Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, "Tasted as part of a vertical held at the chateau. The 2010 is more Zen-like on the nose compared to the 2009 - more minerality coming through, tense and citric. The palate offers surprising viscosity on the entry with a fine bead of acidity. There is plenty of apricot and dried honey. It has a lovely caressing texture, although there is still some new oak to absorb on the vanilla-scented finish. This has great potential. Drink 2019-2035."

Restrictions: Must be 21 to order. Available for shipping through MacArthur Beverages [not able to ship to: AL, DE, IL, IA, KY, MA, MD, ME, MS, ND, NH, NY, OK, PA, SD, TX, UT, VA, VT.] shipping fee will be added to the final cost or available for pick-up by appointment at our Arlington, Virginia office beginning the week of May 10th.

Château Grand Puy Lacoste 2005 - 3L (in original wooden box)

estimated value: $700

We are so thankful for this lovely donation from Emeline Borie - a double magnum from 2005. "The brilliant 2005 Grand-Puy-Lacoste exhibits classic Pauillac aromas and flavors of creme de cassis along with stony/floral notes. Proprietor Xavier Borie has created a wine that should rival the brilliant 1982, 1990, 1996, and 2000. Full-bodied with sweet tannin and superb length (a 40+ second finish), the purity of this beauty's black currant fruit is something to behold. Anticipated maturity: 2013-2030. 95 points - Robert Parker

Tesseron Family Package

estimated value: $6,200

Dinner for 10 at Château Pontet-Canet

Tesseron Estate 'Pym-Rae' 2016 - 3 bottles (in the original wooden case)

The charming Alfred Tesseron has extended a generous invitation to visit Château Pontet-Canet and will offer a special treat of a wonderful dinner for up to ten guests. After a brief introduction to the history of Château Pontet-Canet in front of its 18th century facade, you are invited to cruise through the stunning vineyards where you will be given a unique insight into the skills involved in the production of its wine. You then enter the 19th century vat room with its metallic structure architecturally inspired by the Eiffel era. This is then followed by a visit to its brand new triconic vat room, the first of its kind in the Médoc. After viewing the underground cellar, you will finish with a taste of one of magnificent Grand Cru vintages. The beautiful Chateau which makes superb biodynamic wines has gone through a wonderful transformation since 1994, the year Alfred Tesseron took over the chateau. M. Tesseron shared that amongst many of the secrets of this beautiful wine is the care given to grape selection and the idea of going back to organic principles. From manual grape selection, the lack of computers in making harvesting and fermentation decisions to individuals working in the cellars daily, heart and mind invested– winemaking at Pontet-Canet is an art. In the vineyards you are always bound to see the horses working the soil. Your perfect visit at Pontet-Canet will be made extra special by an invitation to dinner for up to ten guests with a gorgeous view of the expansive vineyards.

We are very excited to include three bottles from the inaugural vintage of Pym-Rae under the new ownership of Tesseron Estate. Formerly the wine estate of the late Robin Williams who named the wine after combining the middle names of his son and daughter, Pym-Rae is now the California crown jewel of Bordeaux's Tesseron family who produces Château Pontet-Canet. The Tessérons decided to keep the wine's name to honor the legacy of the late actor.

The wine received 97point from the Wine Advocate, "A blend of 76% Cabernet Sauvignon, 17% Merlot and 7% Cabernet Franc, the 2016 Pym-Rae displays a deep garnet-purple color and reveals wonderfully fragrant notes of candied violets, wilted roses, damp soil and black tea over a core of red and black currants, black cherries and warm blackberries plus touches of cigar box and camphor. Medium to full-bodied, the palate is evocatively singular, offering that rock-solid structure of mountain fruit, yet these are wonderfully ripe silt-like tannins that beautifully support the elegant red and black fruit layers, finishing very long and very perfumed." Drink: 2020-2048

Restrictions: The dinner at Pontet-Canet is to be set on a mutually agreeable date. The Pym-Rae will be shipped from the winery to the winner. Must be over 21 to order.

Château Beychevelle 2015 - 5L

estimated value: $1,000

It is so kind of Philippe Blanc to send this lovely 2015 Jeroboam as a show of their support and loyalty to Heart's Delight and we know our guests love when Philippe is able to join us in Washington. The 2015 Château Beychevelle received 95 points from Jeb Dunnuck, "A true gem in the vintage is the 2015 Château Beychevelle which is 47% Merlot, 42% Cabernet Sauvignon and the rest Petit Verdot, all of which was brought up in 50% new oak. This beauty is loaded with notions of black cherries, leafy herbs, underbrush and hints of violets. Medium to full-bodied, concentrated and opulent on the palate, with fine, ripe tannin, it has all the right components, is intense, pure, and lengthy. Count me in as a fan and it will benefit from short-term cellaring and keep for two decades or more." And 94 points from Neal Martin: "The 2015 Beychevelle has a wonderful ripe blackberry, boysenberry and cassis-scented bouquet that is very well defined. There is nascent energy and tension spilling out from the glass. The palate is medium-bodied with quite opulent black fruit laced with graphite and a splash of soy, but underneath is embedded a firm structure. There is real vivacity and terroir expression on the finish, a Beychevelle with enormous potential. One for those seeking 'classic' Saint-Julien."

Restrictions: Must be 21 to order. Wine is coming directly from Bordeaux on a container due to arrive in June. We will contact you once the item has arrived in DC to arrange shipping through MacArthur Beverages [not able to ship to: AL, DE, IL, IA, KY, MA, MD, ME, MS, ND, NH, NY, OK, PA, SD, TX, UT, VA, VT] Shipping fee will be added to the final cost or available for pick-up by appointment at our Arlington, Virginia office.

Château Margaux 2015 - 1 bottle

estimated value: $1,500

It is very rare when something sentimental can also be so beautiful. The 2015 vintage received high marks all around - 100 points Decanter... 100 points Jeb Dunnuck... 100 points James Suckling... 100 points Wine Enthusiast... 99 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate... 99 points Wine Spectator

"This wine is beautifully packaged in a special commemorative bottle honoring winemaker Paul Pontallier, who passed away in 2016. The gold-etched black bottle bears the message, "Hommage à Paul Pontallier" at the bottom. This 2015 is an achingly beautiful swan song from an incredibly gifted winemaker, taken from us too soon. In my view, this alone makes this vintage more than worth the investment for the many lovers of history in a bottle." - Wine Advocate Château Margaux said that it was the first time it had commissioned a one-off design for its grand vin for a particular vintage. It is a mark of estate owner Corinne Mentzelopoulos' respect for Paul Pontallier, who joined Margaux in 1983. 2015 was Paul Pontallier's final vintage at Margaux; he passed away in 2016. Paul Pontallier was a wonderful friend of Heart's Delight and we were all tremendously saddened by his passing. We were honored to have his son Thibault here with us in 2018 to help celebrate his father's legacy.

12 Château Cos d'Estournel 2000 - 6L

estimated value: $3,000

This lovely Imperial is 6 liters (equivalent of 8 bottles)! 96 points from the Wine Spectator and ranked #2 wine in the Top 100 wines of 2003! "Cos puts together serious reds in serious years, and with large production for a relatively reasonable price. Cos's head, Jean-Guillaume Prats, has made the property's best red since 1989. Gorgeous on the nose, with currants, blackberries and cut flowers, it is full-bodied, with ultrafine tannins and a solid core of fruit. Goes on and on. It is the essence of class and refinement. Best after 2010." (01/03) 91points Robert Parker: "The wine displays roasted herbs intermixed with licorice, incense, black cherry, and black currant fruit. Medium-bodied, rather than full, elegant, with some spicy tannins and a nice sweet finish, compared to the other top classified growths, this wine is on a much faster evolutionary track and can be drunk now and over the next 15 or more years." (6/10) 90 points Stephen Tanzer: "Full ruby-red. Cassis, minerals, cedar and a floral note on the nose, along with an herbal currant leaf component. Juicy and tight; hints at the power of the vintage but misses out on the sweetness and pliancy of the best examples. Offers a reasonably seamless texture but the firmly tannic finish seems a bit herbaceous following the 2001" (May/June 03)

Restrictions: Must be 21 to order. Wine is coming directly from Bordeaux on a container due to arrive in June. We will contact you once the item has arrived in DC to arrange shipping through MacArthur Beverages [not able to ship to: AL, DE, IL, IA, KY, MA, MD, ME, MS, ND, NH, NY, OK, PA, SD, TX, UT, VA, VT] Shipping fee will be added to the final cost or available for pick-up by appointment at our Arlington, Virginia office.

13 Château Montrose 2014 - 9L (in original wooden box) estimated value: $3,000

The wonderful Hervé Berland kindly allowed us to auction off what would have been in the 2020 live auction - this Salomanazar is 9 liters - the equivalent of 12 bottles.

96 points from Robert Parker's Wine Advocate! "The Château Montrose 2014 is a blend of 61% Cabernet Sauvignon, 30% Merlot, 8% Cabernet Franc and 1% Petit Verdot that represents 47% of the total production. It was picked from mid-September via five or six tries through the vineyard. The aromatics represent a clear step in quality from the second wine, attired with far more precision and focus, much more purity with scents of blackberry, boysenberry and blue fruit, now with touches of violet and vanilla. It is beautifully defined and actually, at least at this juncture, closely aligned with Cos d'Estournel 2014. The palate is medium-bodied with filigree tannin that underpin layers of pure mineral-rich black fruit. There is an enthralling sense of energy and precision here and it fans out remarkably on the finish. Dare I say, this is one grand vin that comes perilously close to matching the heights of the 2009 and 2010. This is a brilliant Montrose, one of the best you will find on the Left Bank this vintage."

Restrictions: Must be 21 to order. Available for shipping through MacArthur Beverages [not able to ship to: AL, DE, IL, IA, KY, MA, MD, ME, MS, ND, NH, NY, OK, PA, SD, TX, UT, VA, VT] Shipping fee will be added to the final cost or available for pick-up by appointment at our Arlington, Virginia office beginning the week of May 10th.

Domaine Clarence Dillon 2015 Collection

estimated value: $3,500

1 - Magnum of Château La Mission Haut-Brion 2015

1 - Magnum of Château Haut-Brion 2015

1 - Magnum of Château Quintus 2015

We are so honored for the support of Domaine Clarence Dillon in our Auction and Celebration this year. Prince Robert and Jean-Philippe Delmas have been our guests of honor in the past and we can't wait until they can be with us again. In the meantime, they have sent an incredible set of three magnums from the 2015 vintage - all very high scoring and the Haut Brion and La Mission Haut Brion received a perfect score!

The 2015 Haut Brion, received 100 points from Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, "This impeccably poised, exquisitely perfumed 2015 Haut-Brion possesses the most alluring yet seemingly effortless beauty. While it bears only a passing resemblance in its opulent personality to the now legendary 1989, like that vintage the 2015 cannot fail to hedonically satiate and intellectually edify all lovers of great Bordeaux who drink it. What's more, it also has the blue-blooded tenaciousness to remain this jaw-droppingly impressive, throughout its many guises over time, and for a very, very long time."

As well as 100 points from Jeb Dunnuck, "The 2015 Haut Brion is a perfect wine that couldn't be any better and is certainly at the top of this great vintage. A blend of 50% Merlot, 42% Cabernet Sauvignon, and the balance Cabernet Franc, this full-bodied, concentrated, backward, yet sensationally pure 2015 boast knockout notes of blackcurrants, smoked tobacco, ground herbs, and graphite, with a terrific damp earth/minerality quality emerging with time in the glass. Straight, focused, and built like a skyscraper, with a stacked mid-palate, enjoy over the following three to four decades."

The 2015 La Mission Haut Brion received 100 points from James Suckling and 98 points from Jeb Dunnuck, "More opulent, sexy and concentrated, the 2015 La Mission Haut Brion is a tour de force that has everything you could want from Bordeaux. A huge nose of smoke tobacco, gravelly earth, graphite, cassis, and blackcurrants gives way to a full-bodied, concentrated, perfectly balanced beauty that has incredible depth of flavor and intensity, yet with no weight. While the overall impression is upfront and in your face, it has incredible elegance and length on the finish (as well as ripe tannin), and will keep for three decades." And also 98 points from Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, "The deep garnet-purple colored 2015 La Mission Haut-Brion is a blend of 58% Merlot, 7% Cabernet Franc and 35% Cabernet Sauvignon. Medium to full-bodied, decadently fruited and yet wonderfully elegant with very ripe, very silky tannins, freshness that sits well in the background and an almost electric intensity of vibrant red and black fruit flavors, it finishes long and minerally. Just. Beautiful. Consider giving it 6-7 years in bottle before broaching and drink it over the next 30+."

The 2015 Château Quintus received 97 points from James Suckling, "Such a beautiful and complex nose of rose petals, dark fruit and sandalwood. Full-bodied, juicy and flavorful. A precise linear edge to this runs through the wine. Very fine tannins. Yet this is so powerful. Love it. Drink in 2022 and forward." Also 94 points from The Wine Advocate and Jeb Dunnuck, "The top cuvee is the 2015 Château Quintus, and it's a sensationally concentrated, textured beauty loaded with character. Toasty oak, chocolate, blackcurrants, and licorice all emerge from this full-bodied Saint-Emilion and it has a terrific mid-palate, fine tannin and the balance and depth to keep for two decades."

Restrictions: The wine will be sent directly to the winner after the auction. Must be 21 to purchase.

Château Gruaud Larose 2000

Château Léoville Las Cases 2000

2000 Bordeaux wine continues to hold on to its legendary status. It's important to keep in mind, 2000 Bordeaux wine was the first perfect vintage for both banks in a decade. With 2000 Bordeaux wine, part of what made the vintage great is that quality wines were produced in every Bordeaux appellation and in all price categories. That level of consistency in 2000 Bordeaux wine is one of the key hallmarks to a great Bordeaux wine vintage. The wines are deep, ripe, rich, concentrated, flamboyant and expressive. The tannins are ripe and round. The wines are built to age, yet their charm allows them to enjoyed in their relative youth. When the vintage was first offered, consumers were aghast at the prices being asked.

2000 Bordeaux wine was great from top to bottom. For that reason, 2000 Bordeaux was expensive the day it was first offered. Yet even though 2000 Bordeaux was the most expensive vintage ever offered as a future in its day, prices have continued climbing. Here is your chance to secure a curated lot with some of the best and our generous donors have done the cellaring for you!

Pappy Van Winkle Family Reserve 20 year old

estimated value: $2,500

A bit of a departure from our regular auction lots but this is the #1 rated Bourbon Whiskey in the world and impossible to find. This might be the only way to get your hands on a bottle!

It received a 99 out of 100 rating by the World Spirits Championship. This bourbon is aged 20 years and bottled at 90.4 proof for a wonderfully smooth and rich profile. Pappy Van Winkle was a true character and like its namesake, this bourbon whiskey is full of character - quite a remarkable whiskey.

The search for Van Winkle has inspired a song, a blog, an app and a delirious secondary market.

Château Gruaud Larose 1982 - 12 bottles

estimated value: $4,800

98 points from Robert Parker! "A massive wine that is clearly of first-growth quality in this vintage, the 1982 Gruaud Larose remains a youngster. A broodingly dense, thick, unctuously textured, inky/plum/garnet/purple... One of the most concentrated wines of the vintage (as well as one of the most concentrated Bordeaux's I have ever tasted), it is a huge, full-bodied, weighty, rich wine whose tannins are getting silkier and silkier. It appears set for another 30-40 years of life. This behemoth is a singularly profound example of Gruaud Larose that continues to justify its legendary status. Anticipated maturity: now-2050."

1 - bottle Tantalus Pinot Noir Reserve 2015

Two years ago, we enjoyed a wonderful trip to the Canadian Rockies. While there, we explored the Okanagan Valley and its wines, which are gaining considerable recognition. It's a diverse region, with big red wines in the southern part of the Valley and cool climate wines to the north. We found a number of interesting wines but by far the best were the pinot noirs and rieslings at Tantalus. We enjoyed them so much we asked the winemaker where we could find them in the US. The answer? You can't - they sell out in Canada. So, this bottle I brought back might be your only chance to taste this excellent wine from our northern neighbor.

Love is why

Erlinda Alexandra Doherty

1 - bottle Barbadillo 'Laura' Moscatel NV

The bottle I donated to the Committee Lot is a rare and delicious example of sherry, a fortified wine from Jerez, Spain that is often misunderstood. Luscious, rich, dark and sweet, I love to explore this wine with students and friends so as to impart an appreciation of an ancient, yet timeless wine-making process.

1 - bottle Repris Moon Mountain Vineyard Zinfandel

I donated this wine because it is from my favorite winery in Sonoma. They sit at the top of Moon Mountain, a former hippie commune. They have caves carved into the side of the mountain and their property stretches to the top. You can see the Golden Gate Bridge from their Pinot vines! It is a truly remarkable winery and a wonderful visit. Also, they have a cat that will come sit on your table while you are tasting. That's a plus for me!!

VIK winery in Chile's Cachapoal Valley is one of the most visually stunning properties I've ever seen. So, it was not surprising that they have an equally stunning art-inspired wine -- La Piu Belle, which means "the most beautiful." The wine is a delicious blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Carmenere, Cabernet Franc, Merlot, and Syrah. I brought this bottle (and a few others) back from a trip to VIK in 2018. I think it is a wine worthy of being shared. I hope you enjoy it!

1 - bottle Bernard Dugat-Py Mazoyeres-Chambertin Grand Cru 2011

Josh picked this red wine because it is light and can pair with a wide variety of foods. Sweet herbs, licorice, violets, lavender and spices lift from the glass in an electric, nuanced Burgundy loaded with class. The inclusion of 80% stems gives the Mazoyères a sense of weightlessness that balances the intensity of the fruit beautifully.

1 - bottle Chateau Giscours 2016

When I was in college many years ago, Addy Bassin arranged for one of his friends in Bordeaux to host my buddy and me for the day. We were taken to lunch at a white tablecloth restaurant and visited several châteaux, including Château Giscours - a wonderful experience that sparked my life-long interest in wine. I'd like to think my involvement with Heart's Delight helps repay Addy's generosity.

1 - bottle Rasa Vineyards Principia Reserve Syrah, Walla Walla Valley 2012

2012 Rasa Principia Reserve Syrah-Rasa vineyards has been turning out impressive wines since 2007 and this was its first label. I drank this wine at Rasa Vineyards on my first trip to Walla Walla, WA. The Syrah grapes comes from Les Collines and Seven Hills vineyards. I went to Les Collines vineyard later in the day and saw this beautiful vineyard at the foot of the blue mountains and learned that over 40 wineries source from this place. 2012 was a great vintage for the area and the experts says the wine has aromas of violets, sage, toffee and black plums.

1 - bottle Selbach-Oster Zeltinger Schlossberg Riesling Spätlese 2007

Not the priciest producer in my cellar, Selbach-Oster is probably my favorite among all of the producers whose wines I own. I've been buying and drinking the wines of Selbach-Oster for well north of 20 years because they are constantly delicious and remain amazingly affordable despite their beauty. This particular Spätlese is one of my favorites from S-O, displaying a perfect balance of fruit and acidity to make for terrific drinking now or 10 years hence.

1 - bottle Failla "Whistler Vineyard" Pinot Noir 2012

Until 2007, I assumed that wine fanatics were crazy. Sure, I enjoyed wine, but it was simply a drink. And then, on a visit to Napa Valley, I put my nose in a glass of wine from Failla. Something clicked. And at that moment, I became obsessed. I promptly dove into the world of wine, planning trips, taking classes, attending tastings, and reading every wine publication I could find. This wine hails from the Whistler Vineyard, the northern-most vineyard site within the Sonoma Coast AVA.

STRATEGIC VALUE PROPOSITION

The AHA is a catalyst to achieving maximum impact in equitable health and well-being.

2024 IMPACT GOAL

Every person deserves the opportunity for a full, healthy life. As champions for health equity, by 2024, the American Heart Association will advance cardiovascular health for all, including identifying and removing barriers to health care access and quality.

Health Equity: Everyone deserves and optimal and just opportunity to be healthy, giving special attention to the needs of those at greatest risk of poor health. No one is disadvantaged from achieving their potential because of social position or any other socially defined circumstance.

IMPACT STRATEGIES

Specifically, we will:

- » Drive advances in research and discovery.
- » Raise awareness, empower people, and engage communities to improve their cardiovascular and brain health.
- » Advocate relentlessly to ensure access to health care for all and improve health care quality.
- » Innovate new solutions to achieve equitable health for all.

Delivered through the pillars of our work*

Barriers: Drivers of health disparities we will address include:

- » Social Determinants of Health: The conditions in which people live shaped by the distribution of money, power and resources.
- » Structural Racism: A system in which public policies, institutional practices, cultural representations and norms perpetuate racial inequity.
- » Rural Health: Geographic and resource challenges leading to gaps in health and health care.

100 Château Haut-Bailly 2010 - 3L

estimated value: $750

From our friends at Château Haut-Bailly this lovely double magnum from 2010 received 98 points from Robert Parker! "This quintessential example of pure finesse, elegance, harmony and delicacy is combined into a wine that lingers intensely with near-perfect poise and character. Haut-Bailly's ethereal character is virtually unmatched in Bordeaux. This wine is ripe yet delicate, powerful yet stylish, and essentially resembles a remarkable fashion design from a house of haute couture."

102 Le Petit Mouton de Mouton Rothschild 2006 - 6 bottles (in original wooden box) estimated value: $2,300

"The 2006 Le Petit Mouton is the finest example of this cuvee I have yet tasted. A combination of 70% Cabernet Sauvignon, 16% Cabernet Franc, and 14% Merlot, its dark ruby/purple color is followed by a wine with sweet tannins, an up-front, precocious personality, loads of fruit and exuberance, and a slightly flamboyant style that gives it considerable sensual appeal. Ever since owner Philippine de Rothschild put Philippe Dalhuin in charge at Mouton in 2004 there has been a dramatic reduction in the amount of wine produced under the Mouton Rothschild label. The selection process has been ratcheted up to the level of other first-growths, and that is reflected in what is clearly the greatest Mouton produced since 1982 and 1986. As I indicated in my barrel tasting notes, only 44% of the crop made it into the 2006 grand vin, which is the lowest percentage in more than fifty years. The final blend includes a high percentage of Cabernet Sauvignon (87%) and the rest Merlot (13%). No Cabernet Franc was utilized in 2006, and purchasers will have a long wait until this wine reaches full maturity. Keep in mind that, where well-stored, the 1986 currently tastes like a 4-5 year old wine, and the 1982 is just beginning to enter early adolescence. If you extrapolate from that, the 2006 will need at least twenty years to reach a teen-age status, and probably will not hit its plateau of maturity for three decades." - 90 points Robert Parker

George Hansen Vineyard Pinot Noir 2019 - 1 Magnum

George Leras Vineyard Pinot Noir 2019 - 1 Magnum

George Sonoma Coma Pinot Noir 2019 - 1 Magnum

George Levkoff had his wine epiphany when a friend brought a 1991 and 1992 Williams Selyem Rochioli Vineyard Pinot Noir to share at dinner. Four years later, he left his job as a bond trader on Wall Street and headed west to Sonoma. He interned at Williams Selyem from 1999 to 2002, learning the winemaking process. He also worked at the smaller Brogan Cellars which was more closely modeled after the type of winery he hoped to have for himself. With grapes from David Hirsch of Sonoma Coast's Hirsch Vineyard, he released 150 cases of his inaugural Pinot Noirs in 2003 (Block 3A from the Pommard clone and Block 4A from the Mt. Eden clone). The wines immediately caught the attention of top sommeliers at restaurants in Las Vegas and New York and his Pinot Noir has become quite a cult wine.

3 - bottles Addax Proprietary Red 2018

If there is a winemaker in Napa Valley that fits the description “Larger than Life,” it is Russell Bevan. His personality is only superseded by some of the critical review his wines have received. Russell Bevan is one of Napa Valley’s most acclaimed winemakers; a superstar with critics, colleagues and consumers alike. Famed critic, Robert Parker, regularly praises his wines, providing correspondingly sky-high scores. His wines are invariably unapologetic, character driven and remarkably tasty. They are made in small lots, many under 100 cases, and sell out in an instant.

From his dogged pursuit of excellence in viticulture, to resourcefulness in the cellar, and to legendary property acquisitions, Bevan’s enormous success took years of hard work. Building his brand from the ground up, Russell Bevan is an extraordinary example of achieving towering heights in the wine world.

This is your chance to taste through some of his wines, Addax and Institution (which is new) and then have the opportunity to talk to Russell on a zoom call – we know you will learn a lot and be entertained!

Mini-Vertical Silver Oak Cellars/Meyer Family Cellars Bonny's Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon 2012-2014

estimated value: $500

"Among the tapestry of historic vineyards in Napa Valley, there are a few standout names, but even fewer sites, if any, involve the rare combination of legendary wine, romance, and a touch of mystery. Bonny's Vineyard is such a place. This four-acre vineyard in the Oakville District is both a special piece of land and a unique part of Napa history. It was planted in 1974 by Justin Meyer, the winemaker and co-founder of Silver Oak Cellars, as a gift to his wife, Bonny. Ideally situated in a gravelly spot adjacent to Conn Creek on the valley floor, Bonny's Vineyard was responsible for a memorable string of Silver Oak vintages over the course of two decades. Justin Meyer stopped producing the Bonny's Vineyard designate after the 1991 vintage. After replanting in 1999, the family has again decided to make a single vineyard bottling. True to the original, this is 100% Cabernet Sauvignon aged in 100% American oak barrels for almost 3 full years. The nose exhibits dark fruit aromas of cherry and plum mingling with cedar and cardamom and a hint of eucalyptus. The palate is the heart of this wine, with concentrated fruit on the entry and luscious, silky tannins filling the mouth with an almost endless finish. These are almost impossible to find - here is your chance!

Graham's Vintage Port 1983 - 2 x 375ml

Graham's Vintage Port 1977 - 2 x 375ml

Robert Parker awarded the 1977 93 points and 92 points for the 1983. "Graham is another great port house, producing one of the deepest-colored and sweetest styles of vintage port. Along with Taylor and Fonseca, Graham has probably been the most consistent producer of great port in the post- World War II era. Their vintage ports are truly sublime and sumptuous."

109 Château Lafon-Rochet 2008 - 6L

estimated value: $230

Basile Tesseron sent along this impressive Imperial (equivalent of 8 bottles) from 2008. It "exhibits a dark plum/purple color, plenty of firm, rugged, austere tannins, copious red and black fruits, admirable flavor intensity and medium body." - Robert Parker

The 2008 reveals a complex and fragrant nose, with scents of red fruits, ripe vine peaches and subtle notes of spicy black pepper and nutmeg. The wine shows a balanced structure and wonderful elegance, before offering tannins of great finesse. The finish is generous in fruit, consistent with the nose. consume before 2025 - winemaker notes

Antica Terra Obelin Pinot Noir 2013 (Winemaker Maggie Harrison found that there were a few barrels of her 2013 pinot that were distinctive enough that she bottled them separately as Obelin.)

Kelley Fox Durant Vineyard Lane Block Chardonnay 2019 (The secret that Kelley Fox is one of Oregon - and America's - finest winemakers is getting out. Critics, like Josh Reynolds of Vinous, are raving. Eric Guido, of New York's powerhouse Morrell Wine Shop and Wine Bar wrote: "My only fear is that, as word gets out, will we be able to find the Kelley Fox wines that we've fallen in love with? Time will tell.")

Pride Reserve Cabernet Sauvignon 2009: Winemaker Sally Johnson earned 96 points for this big, bold Cabernet Sauvignon: "...super-distinctive and loaded with personality." Now peaking.

Day Mamacita! 2020 (No matter how much acclaim 2019 James Beard Award nominee Brianne Day receives - including the recent 95 points for her chardonnay - it is this refreshing pet-nat that sells out first every year! It's a cult classic. This - just released - is one of her favorite versions.)

Historically, such places as Bordeaux, Chianti, Rioja, and Napa were male bastions, where, with few exceptions, men owned the wineries, worked the vineyards, ruled the cellars, and sold the bottles. In the 19th century and through most of the 20th, the death of a spouse was the way women could take over family wine companies. Trailblazing widows in Champagne such as Barbe-Nicole Ponsardin (Veuve Clicquot) and Lily Bollinger were wildly successful, revolutionizing the wines and making the region famous. In the 21st century, some things have changed but not entirely. For sure, ambitious women today have taken on top roles, which means there are plenty of their great wines to celebrate in this lot - enjoy!

Shameless plug on our part, the winner of the lot from the last auction, "really did enjoy learning about the many different backgrounds of these women, about their vineyards and their wine. They made for probably my most favorite club wine tasting ever, because of the stories. Perfect purchase!"

Château Mouton Rothschild 2003 - 2 bottles

estimated value: $1,100

95 points from Robert Parker and Antonio Galloni, "A heady, exotic wine, the 2003 Mouton Rothschild takes hold of all the senses. The ripeness and exuberance of the year comes through in spades as this dramatic, opulent wine shows off its radiant personality. The 2003 can be enjoyed now, but it could also use another few years for the tannins to soften. Still, the 2003 is pretty hard to resist today. This is an exceptional, deeply satisfying Mouton endowed with notable richness but also exceptional balance. Hints of toffee, torrefaction and dark spices are laced into the finish. In 2003 the blend is 76% Cabernet Sauvignon, 14% Merlot, 8% Cabernet Franc and 2% Petit Verdot, all brought in between a fairly narrow window of ten days between September 15 and 25." (AG) (5/2016)

Rhys Vineyards Pair of 2018 Pinot Noir Magnums

estimated value: $420

1 - Magnum Rhys Vineyards Alpine Vineyard Pinot Noir 2018

1 - Magnum Rhys Vineyards Bearwallow Vineyard Pinot Noir 2018

Antonio Galloni writes that Rhys' "2018s are just off the charts brilliant" and "the finest wines I have ever tasted from Rhys. The 2018 Pinot Noirs are without question the finest wines I have ever tasted from Rhys. One after the other, the 2018s are just off the charts brilliant, as saw in two separate tastings this past summer. The long, benign growing season with healthy rain and no shock events gave proprietor Kevin Harvey and winemaker Jeff Brinkman ideal conditions to really capture the essence of site. And that's what these wines are all about. The essence of place. Two thousand eighteen is the perfect vintage to explore the vineyards in the Rhys range, as the wines are so precise, so defined. In some ways, the 2018s have suaveness to them that recalls the 2012s, but the 2018s have darker fruit and more energy. The Pinots spent 18-21 days on the skins, including a few days of cold soak." - Antonio Galloni, Vinous

1 - Magnum Next of Kyn Cumulus Vineyard No. 9

2 - bottles Next of Kyn Cumulus Vineyard No. 9

1 - bottle Next of Kyn Número Um Touriga Nacional 2015

99 points from Robert Parker's Wine Advocate for the Next of Kyn Cumulus Vineyard No. 9, "Deep garnet-purple, the nose unabashedly struts its stuff, giving up flamboyant plum preserves, blackberry compote, Black Forest cake and star anise notes with hints of Sichuan pepper, forest floor, lavender, lilacs, Ceylon tea and smoked meats. Big, concentrated and full-bodied, this rockstar is a powerhouse of energy, supported by a rock solid, firm and super plush tannins and finely knit freshness, finishing very long. Tantalizingly delicious now, patience will be rewarded here.” Next of Kyn was introduced by the talented Manfred and Elaine Krankl in 2007 as a completely separate operation from his Sine Qua Non wines. Next of Kyn wines are sourced from their Cumulus Vineyard that is planted around their estate in Oakview. Each Next of Kyn release are sold in box set which contains three 750ml and one magnum. Production is extremely low, so getting your hands on these phenomenal bottles could be tough, but today is your lucky day!

95 points from Robert Parker's Wine Advocate for the 2015 Touriga Nacional Cumulus Vineyard Número Um, which is “Manfred Krankl's inaugural Touriga Nacional from his Cumulus Vineyard in Oak View. Unfurling in the glass with notes of clove, dark cherry, cherry pit, sweet spices and blackberries, it's a full-bodied, layered wine with a velvety attack, considerable concentration and a deep, even massive mid-palate, concluding with a youthfully chewy finish.”

Carruades de Lafite 2000 - 2 bottles

estimated value: $500

"A brilliant second wine, the 2000 Carruades de Lafite (51.4% Cabernet Sauvignon, 42.3% Merlot, 4.9% Cabernet Franc, and 1.4% Petit Verdot), aged in 10-15% new French oak, shows wonderfully sweet lead pencil shavings intermixed with an elegant black cherry and cassis nose. A wine of tremendous purity, medium body, and the tell-tale Lafite elegance, this is a gorgeous wine." 90 points – Robert Parker

"The purity of fruit is so enticing here with strawberries, flowers, lavender and currants. Black earth, too. Some stone and cement. It's full-bodied with firm, fine tannins. It shows so much cabernet sauvignon character." James Suckling (95-96)

121 Brunelleschi Hotel - 2 Night Stay estimated value: $875

Stay in the heart of Florence and quickly get to know its historical roots with a 2-night stay at Brunelleschi Hotel. This historic hotel is located where the church of San Michele once stood and the district where the hotel is located was once owned by Filippo Brunelleschi, hence the hotel's name. The Hotel Brunelleschi is literally in the shadow of the dome of Santa Maria del Fiore, designed by Brunelleschi himself. The hotel incorporates a Byzantine tower and a medieval church in its façade; a private museum and part of a Roman bath in its foundations; and several historical buildings. Hotel Brunelleschi is nestled in a quiet area of Florence but is close to Piazza Duomo, Piazza della Signoria, museums, shopping areas and the most popular monuments. Don't forget to admire Michelangelo's coveted statue of David!

Restrictions: Valid during November, December 2021 and January, February, March, August, November, and December 2022. Subject to availability and always on request. Château Haut-Bailly 2009 - 1 Perfect Bottle!

estimated value: $250

100 points Robert Parker! "It goes from strength to strength, and it is not surprising that it is now one of the perfect wines of this great, great vintage the finest vintage of Bordeaux that I have tasted in 37 years covering that epicenter for world-class quality in wine. Much of it is attributable to winemaker Véronique Sanders and her boss, Robert Wilmers. Their incredibly draconian selection process and their enormous investments in both the viticulture and the estate as well as the winemaking facility have paid off brilliantly over the last decade. The 2009, which has an opaque ruby/purple color, an extraordinary nose of high-quality unsmoked cigar tobacco, graphite, blackcurrants and spice, hits the palate with a medium to full-bodied, saturated and rich mouthfeel, but an elegant and ethereal quality that is difficult to articulate. It is rich, complex and tastes as if it were the vinous equivalent of a remarkable haute couture creation from the late Coco Chanel. It is full-bodied yet elegant, powerful yet delicate, and remarkably velvety-textured, sumptuous and loaded with upside potential. It can be approached now, as most 2009s tend to be, given their richness of fruit, low acidity and extraordinary concentration, but the great complexity that will emerge from this fabulous terroir is at least a decade away, and this wine is set for 50 or more years of longevity. Kudos to Haut-Bailly!"

123 Château Mouton Rothschild 1995 Framed Label

estimated value: $150

Baron Philippe de Rothschild came up with the idea of having each year's Château Mouton Rothschild label designed by a famous artist of the day. In 1946, this became a permanent and significant aspect of the Mouton image with labels created by some of the world's great painters and sculptors. The 1995 Artist Label is an abstract work in black and wine-red by painter Antoni Tàpies graces the label of Château Mouton-Rothschild 1995. Tàpies, 74, is the third Spanish painter in the artist label series that began at Mouton in 1945, following Salvador Dali (1958) and Joan Miró (1969).

Frame is 15.5" wide and 19" high. The label replica is approx. 10.5" x 14" with an abt. 2" mat. The frame is approx. ½" wide, in antique gold.

124 Opus One 2007 - 1 bottle

estimated value: $400

Robert Parker gave the 2007 Opus One 95 points, "This is a sensational Opus One, with sweet tannin and impressive precision and depth. It can be drunk now or cellared for 25+ years...A wine that may approach the prototypically perfect idea of what Opus One wants to be is the 2007. Production was down by at least 20%, and the result is a wine with extraordinary concentration of creme de cassis intermixed with licorice, cedarwood, and spice box. It reveals dazzling purity of fruit on the attack and mid-palate, builds to a full-bodied, sumptuous mouthfeel, and closes with a long, 50+ second finish. This 2007 has the potential to be the finest Opus One ever made since the first vintage in 1979."

Atomos Wine Innovative Story

estimated value: $1,870

2 - Atomos red - 1L

2 - Atomos white wine - 1L

The first wine in the World destemmed by unique Atomos Three-Finger process. Derived from 100% pure variety, up to 65 years of age, Atomos is the first wine in the world to be entirely manually-destemmed. This wine is coming directly from Italy and is a very unique opportunity to try!

Atomos originates from Abruzzo, one of the most blessed and fertile regions of Italy.

Ranging from the Adriatic coastline to the highest peaks of the famed Apennines, Abruzzo embraces an astonishing biodiversity. Each and every berry, one by one, is being meticulously destemmed using their three fingers only and without any mechanical means. Through this time-consuming process only the best berries are being selected. It provides an exceptional palette of flavours and due to its acidity and tannins, it is meant to last over 30 years. Grapes are meticulously selected, one by one, undivided, creating the stunning “multidirectional” flavor you experience in every bottle. Every Atomos wine bottle is rigorously stored at 14-17° C in order to achieve absolute preservation. A true object of desire, a pleasure asset for the future.

Restrictions: Must be 21 to order. Available for shipping through MacArthur Beverages [not able to ship to: AL, DE, IL, IA, KY, MA, MD, ME, MS, ND, NH, NY, OK, PA, SD, TX, UT, VA, VT] Shipping fee will be added to the final cost or available for pick-up by appointment at our Arlington, Virginia office beginning the week of May 10th.

127 Château Calon Ségur 1995 - 12 bottles (in original wooden box) estimated value: $2,300

We don't just love this lot because of the heart on the label, it is a tremendous lot and we aren't the only ones who think so ... 97 points from James Suckling, “I always loved this wine from the first time I tasted it in 1998. It has such purity and power yet it's reserved and beautiful. It's one of the best Calons ever.”

95 points from the Wine Spectator and 94 points from The Wine Advocate's Neal Martin, “The 1995 Calon-Segur was the vintage that raised the profile of this estate and heralded the start of the late Mme Gasqueton's era. At 20 years of age, it shows no signs of reaching the end of its plateau. Far from it. It has an endearing bouquet that still seems youthful: brambly red fruit, asphalt and a light marine influence. Allowing the wine to open, there is a subtle winegum scent. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannin, impressive depth and backbone, the second half having mellowed in recent years, rendering this approachable; hints of secondary truffle and smoke notes emerging with aeration. It has been several years since I last tasted this wine, but it is one that seems to become more and more impressive with age. Robert Parker rightly lauded this Calon-Ségur at the time of release. Twenty years on, it is fulfilling all its promise.”

128 Rhys Vineyards Mt. Pajaro Vineyard Pair of 2017 Magnums estimated value: $400

1 - Magnum Rhys Vineyards Mt. Pajaro Vineyard Chardonnay 2017

1 - Magnum Rhys Vineyards Mt. Pajaro Vineyard Pinot Noir 2017

93 points from Robert Parker’s Wine Advocate for the Pinot, “This is the first vintage of a Mt. Pajaro vineyard designate Pinot Noir - previously this fruit was blended into the Alesia bottling. This vintage the fruit was picked before the heat spike. Pale to medium ruby-purple, the 2017 Pinot Noir Mt. Pajaro Vineyard opens with cinnamon, dried orange peel, potpourri, dusty earth and pipe tobacco with a spicy vein over licorice, wild blackberries and soft red berry hints. The palate is light to medium-bodied and silky with intense, spicy fruits, juicy acidity and a grainy frame, finishing long and spicy.”

The Chardonnay received 92 points from Robert Parker’s Wine Advocate, “The Mt. Pajaro vineyard was planted in 2010, and the 2017 Chardonnay Mt. Pajaro Vineyard marks the first time Rhys has bottled this as a single vineyard designate. The Mt. Pajaro opens with delicate notions of orange blossom, warm hay, spring honey, pie crust and hints of baking spice with loads of ripe orchard and peachy fruit at the core, plus stone and creamy notions. Light to medium-bodied, it’s intense, lively and minerally in the mouth with juicy acidity and a long, refreshing finish.”

Restrictions: Must be 21 to order. 2015 Domaine de Chevalier - 1 rouge & 1 blanc

estimated value: $200

95+ points from Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, "The 2015 Domaine de Chevalier is a blend of 65% Cabernet Sauvignon, 30% Merlot and 5% Petit Verdot picked from 23 September until 15 October at just 35 hl/ha, matured in 35% new oak. It has a sophisticated bouquet that is more reserved than its peers. It possesses one of the most precise, detailed aromatic profiles that I have encountered from this estate, wonderfully poised with black fruit, incense and cold stone. It has wonderful focus and class. The palate is medium-bodied with very fine tannin, very complex with lightly peppered black fruit. What marks this Domaine de Chevalier is the reserve and precision on the finish, a wine that is holding something back for its secondary evolution, a salinity that beckons you back for another sip. What a fabulous, intellectual wine from Olivier Bernard. Expect four decades of drinking pleasure - probably more - given my experience of ancient vintages."

The white also receives 95 points from the Wine Advocate, "The 2015 Domaine de Chevalier Blanc, which is matured in around 40% new oak, has a refined bouquet with gooseberry, lime, almond and grapefruit aromas, the oak neatly interwoven, gradually unfolding in the glass yet remaining focused. The palate has an almost flinty opening, very edgy but not shrill, a tensile and linear Domaine de Chevalier Blanc that is driven by the acidity, touches of crustacea coming through on the energetic finish. There is a twist of sour lemon and chalk popping up on the aftertaste. This is a great, intellectual, comparatively more reserved white from Olivier Bernard."

131 Aubert CIX Vineyard Chardonnay 2014, Signed - 3L

(in original wooden box)

estimated value: $950

99 points from Robert Parker! "the virtually perfect 2014 Chardonnay Cix Estate, planted with a Montrachet clone on Goldridge soils, again exhibits amazing intensity, notes of wet gravel interwoven with apple blossom, caramelized citrus, apricot, white peach and honeysuckle. It is full-bodied, multidimensional and a profound glass of Chardonnay. Mark Aubert continues to set the bar incredibly high for the world-class quality of his Burgundian-styled, remarkable Chardonnays, which come from relatively cool sites spread from Rutherford in Napa Valley to the far reaches of the Sonoma Coast. As I indicated last year, Aubert is at the top of his game, and it is hard to believe any Chardonnay winemaker in the world is turning out a half-dozen Chardonnays at this qualitative level year in and year out."

2018 is the first year that Aubert offered their wine in 3-liter format for purchase and thanks to this generous collector we are lucky enough to be able to offer it to you. It also comes in a custom, branded cedar box and is signed by Mark Aubert.

132 Sea Smoke Pinot Noir 2016 Duo estimated value: $235

1 - bottle Sea Smoke Southing Pinot Noir 2016

1 - bottle Sea Smoke Ten Pinot Noir 2016

Has there been another producer of Pinot Noir in California that has caused as much buzz among Pinot enthusiasts? The emphasis here is on meticulous management of the vineyards using a combination of cutting-edge technology and a highly skilled vineyard team.

The Southing received 94 points from Vinous, "The 2016 Pinot Noir Southing is terrific. Finely cut and bright, with soaring floral and citrus overtones, the Southing offers a beguiling mix of deep fruit and aromatic intensity. Sweet red cherry, blood orange, mint and rose petal are all finely cut in a precise, mid-weight Pinot of real distinction. This is such a pretty wine."

The Ten Santa Rita Hills received 93 points from Vinous, "Sea Smoke's 2016 Pinot Noir Ten is rich, boisterous and inviting from the very first taste. A wine of real immediacy and impact, the Ten has so much to offer. Black cherry, plum, hard candy, lavender, sweet spice and new oak are front and center in this lush, beautifully persistent Pinot Noir from Sea Smoke. The Ten will appeal most to readers who appreciate lush Pinots. There is certainly plenty to like here, that much is obvious." (AG)

Aile d'Argent Blanc du Château Mouton Rothschild 20152 bottles

estimated value: $200

Renewing an ancestral tradition in the Médoc, in the early 1980's Philippine de Rothschild decided to plant a few acres of the vineyard with white grape varieties. They have created a rich, complex and elegant wine that is produced in very limited quantities. "Blended of 55% Sauvignon Blanc, 43% Sémillon and 2% Muscadelle, the 2015 Aile d'Argent charges forth from the glass with gregarious ripe peach, pink grapefruit and orange blossom notes plus touches of beeswax, fresh hay, acacia honey, baking bread and allspice. Medium-bodied, the palate is tightly wound and satiny textured with wonderful freshness defining the palate and lifting the intense stone fruit and savory layers, finishing very long and very minerally." 93 points Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

Magnum Massican Napa Valley Sauvignon Blanc 2019

estimated value: $70

Massican is a phenomenon - the winery's doing no less than redefining Napa white wine, and the 2019 Sauvignon Blanc is one of the most clean, crisp, and characterful bottlings we've seen in California. It's the latest edition of a wine that spent years as a by-the-glass selection at The French Laundry, and has been on the Michelin three-star restaurant's list for ten out of twelve vintages. Dan Petroski produced this deliciously dry wine inspired by acid-driven Sauvignon Blancs of Friuli. Winemakers all over Napa serve Massican whites, and a pantheon of vintners can be spotted picking up their allocations at Dan's house. Ripe, intense, and fresh, this juicy SB is perfect for sipping on the patio after a long day at work. Pair with fresh goat cheese and Mediterranean-inspired mezze.

Domaine A.F. Gros Richebourg Grand Cru 2002 - 2 bottles

estimated value: $1,200

"the Richebourg parcel now totals .6 ha after it was combined with the vines that formerly belonged to Michel Gros, which he agreed to exchange so that he could keep the Vosne 1er Clos de Réas as a monopole of Domaine Michel Gros. The Richebourg vines have been replanted 3 times and they are now 15, 25 and 70 years of age A very floral, pure and classy nose leads to powerful and much more elegant and detailed flavors that are structured yet well buffered with a very long finish. A really lovely effort that is perhaps the best vintage for this wine in some time." 90-93 points Allen Meadows - Burghound

137 Château Pichon-Longueville Comtesse de Lalande 2018 2 bottles estimated value: $400

"The 2018 Pichon-Longueville Comtesse de Lalande dazzles from the very first taste. A heady concoction of inky dark fruit, graphite, new leather, licorice, lavender, spice and grilled herbs soars out of the glass. The 2018 is rich and expansive yet retains a super-classic vertical feel. Plush, silky tannins add to its immeasurable pedigree. I would cellar the 2018 for a decade or so, if patience permits. It's a stellar wine in the making. 97+ points - Antonio Galloni of Vinous

While visiting Bordeaux in 2018, Gail and Barbara Bassin actually helped harvest a parcel of Cabernet for this very wine! We have photos and video to prove it 😊

Beaux Frères Pinot Noir The Beaux Frères Vineyard 2006, Ribbon Ridge - Magnum
Beaux Frères Pinot Noir The Beaux Frères Vineyard 2005, Ribbon Ridge - Magnum

The Beaux Freres estate property, an old pig farm, is 24 acres of tightly-spaced, low-yielding vines on the steep slopes of Ribbon Ridge in Northern Willamette Valley. Winemaking philosophy and technique follow a commitment to minimal intervention, with native yeast fermentations and only one racking prior to bottling. All the wines are unfinned and unfiltered. The wine remains in French oak for a period of 10-12 months, in varying proportions of new wood depending on the strength of the vintage. Because of the "reductive" winemaking style, which keeps the wine away from oxygen as much as possible, Beaux Freres Pinots are made for bottle age. The end result is a true expression of prime Willamette terroir.

140 2016 Occidental-Kistler Vineyards Trio

estimated value: $320

1 - bottle Occidental-Kistler Vineyards Running Fence Vineyard Cuvée Catherine Pinot Noir 2016

1 - bottle Occidental-Kistler Vineyards Bodega Headlands Vineyard Cuvée Elizabeth Pinot Noir 2016

1 - bottle Occidental-Kistler Vineyards Occidental Station Vineyard Pinot Noir 2016

This project was started in 2011 as a spin-off from Kistler Vineyards by winemaker Steve Kistler. While everyone knows of Steve Kistler's remarkable chardonnays, I believe his pinot noir will ultimately prove even more historic." - Robert Parker

These wines received 98, 97 and 96 points respectively from Jeb Dunnuck. "The 2016 Pinot Noir Bodega Headlands Vineyard Cuvée Elizabeth is another more elegant, almost perfect wine from this estate. Thrilling notes of smoked red cherries, earth, forest floor, and graphite all give way to a medium-bodied, vibrant, racy wine that has flawless balance, crunchy, vibrant fruit, notable tannins, and a great finish. This is another awesome wine that will benefit from a year or two of bottle age and keep for a decade." 98 points - J. Dunnuck

"Coming from the oldest block just outside the estate (although these are all relatively young vines), the 2016 Pinot Noir Running Fence Vineyard Cuvee Catherine is the first vintage for this cuvée and it's a barrel selection made in the winery. Awesome notes of black and blue fruits, crushed flowers, violets, and hints of charcoal give way to a medium to full-bodied, concentrated, thrillingly textured Pinot Noir that does everything right. As with all these 2017s, it's vibrant and elegant, yet has terrific concentration, good mid-palate depth, and a great finish." 97 points - J. Dunnuck

"The 2016 Pinot Noir Occidental Station Vineyard is a more rounded, mouthfilling effort compared to the other cuvées (it also sees a touch of whole cluster) and is medium to full-bodied, beautifully textured, and layered, with classic notes of forest floor, flowery spice, earth, and sweet black raspberry fruit. It has a wonderful finish, the purity of fruit that's common from this address, and the class to evolve for 10-15 years or more." 96 points - J. Dunnuck

Etienne Sauzet Bienvenues-Batard-Montrachet Grand Cru 2002 2 bottles

estimated value: $1,100

This is a lovely donation from a longtime generous supporter of Heart's Delight whom we all miss dearly, J.D. Murphy. And those of you who knew J.D. will also know how well these bottles were cared for and cellared.

Pierre Rovani from The Wine Advocate gave these 92 points, "Aromatically, the 2002 Bienvenue-Batard-Montrachet offers spiced minerals and anise. Gorgeously well-balanced, this is a big, plush, expansive wine with loads of sappy mineral flavors. Light to medium-bodied and possessing an impressively long, flavorful finish, it is concentrated and harmonious. I have only good things to say about 2002. It is the fourth in a series of good vintages, starting with the 1999s. There was no rot, great maturity, and excellent balance to add backbone," said Gerard Boudot, Sauzet's winemaker.

142 Château Lascombes 2000 - 2 bottles

estimated value: $200

Our friends at Château Lascombes kindly offered a couple of bottles that we were hoping to enjoy during the 2020 event for this exciting auction! The 2000 vintage is an iconic one and here is your chance to have the wine directly from the chateau - with the cellaring done for you!

Château Lascombes is a long-aging wine. It is concentrated and powerful, tannic, with all the elegance and finesse of the great Margaux wines. Robert Parker writes "The first superb Lascombes in nearly 35 years, this generous, deep ruby/purple-colored 2000... offers plenty of perfumed, smoky licorice, black currant, and cherry fruit in a medium-bodied, long, concentrated style with no hard edges... it is clearly the finest wine made at this estate since their classic 1966 and 1970." 90 points

144 Château Clerc-Milon 2000 - 6L (in original wooden box) estimated value: $1,300

From our friends at Clerc-Milon this impressive Imperial contains the equivalent of 8 regular bottles. "A beautiful wine and one of my favorites from this estate, this blend of nearly two-thirds Cabernet Sauvignon and one-third Merlot is aging impressively. Dense ruby/purple in color, with creme de cassis, charcoal, and sweet leathery and chocolatey notes intermixed with the classic Pauillac cedar and spice box, the wine is medium to full-bodied, fleshy, with sweet tannin and a long finish. 92 points" - Robert Parker

145 Château Cheval Blanc 'Le Petit Cheval' 2010 (in original wooden box) estimated value: $1,650

"The best second wine I have ever tasted from Cheval Blanc is the 2010 Le Petit Cheval. This wine is essentially three-fourths Merlot and the rest Cabernet Franc. Rivaling the brilliant 2009, thirty percent of the production from this monstrously sized estate made it into this wine, which offers up plenty of white chocolate, cassis and mulberry as well as a hint of roasted herbs. With fleshy, round flavors, full-bodied texture and an amazing finish, this is no second wine, and considerably better than some of the Cheval Blancs of the 1960s and 1970s! Drink it over the next 15 or so years." 93 points - Robert Parker

146 Almaviva 2011 - 3L (in original wooden box)

estimated value: $850

Almaviva is a château concept winery, established by Baron Philippe de Rothschild and Viña Concha y Toro. One Bordeaux blend is released annually, offering the best of two worlds: Chilean terroir interlaced with French winemaking tradition. The result is an exceptionally elegant and complex wine. Two incredible cultures have joined hands to offer the world a promise of excellence and pleasure.

The 2011 Almaviva received 93 points from Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, "from a cool, dry vintage, is a blend of Cabernet Sauvignon, Carmenere, Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot which feels young, fresh, serious and quite classical-styled It has a special brightness and light, starting to slowly develop some complexity. The palate is concentrated, medium to full-bodied with ripe, round tannins, no edges, good concentration and weight. It's still a baby, a little marked by the oak, but with enough density and freshness to come into greater balance. It should grow up slowly and live a long life. Today I see this 2011 slightly above the 2010, slightly more complex. Drink 2016-2029."

148 Anderson's Conn Valley Vineyards Éloge 2005 - 6 bottles

estimated value: $460

96 points from Robert Parker! "The 2005 Éloge is a staggering wine that is utterly profound. Its extraordinary aromas of incense, cedar wood, creme de cassis, kirsch, spice box, and gamey smokiness as well as forest floor make for one of the most complex wines I smelled over the two weeks I spent in Napa. Full-bodied flavors are followed by a wine with sweet tannins, beautifully deep, concentrated layered fruit flavors, and a long, heady finish. This is gorgeous stuff."

150 2014 Le Carillon d'Angélus - 12 bottles (in original wooden box)

estimated value: $1,500

The 2014 Le Carillon de d'Angélus -Château Angélus Second Wine- is 70% Merlot and 30% Cabernet Franc. The nose reveals subtle toasted notes, well-blended with ripe fruits. Following a supple attack, the palate evolves into a smoother structure supported by tight tannins. This Saint-Emilion carries lovely length soaked in fresh fruits.

The second wine of Angélus is almost as structured as the first wine. It has serious tannins and dark acidity. At the same time, the fruit is rich with black-currant flavors. It is solid with plenty of potential. Drink this very fine wine from 2023. - Wine Enthusiast, 93 points.

1 - Magnum Mayacamas Vineyards Cabernet Sauvignon 2005

1 - Magnum Rhys Vineyards Horseshoe Pinot Noir 2009

1 - Magnum Rhys Vineyards San Matteo County Pinot Noir 2010

What's better than bottles of wine from California? Big bottles of wine from California and our generous donor is sharing some beauties in this lot.

The Mayacamas received 96 points from Antonio Galloni, "The 2005 Cabernet Sauvignon is a gorgeous wine, but it also needs a good hour or more of air for some of the initial signs of funkiness to blow off. As that happens, the 2005 reveals a core of intense, concentrated dark fruit to match its brooding personality. Leather, smoke, licorice and tobacco all add to an impression of inward power, and yet in the glass, the 2005 opens up beautifully to show notable density and layers of texture that still need time to fully emerge. Although I have had better bottles, this is certainly a very fine example. Readers lucky enough to own the 2005 can look forward to several decades of exceptional drinking from this powerhouse, old school Napa Valley Cabernet Sauvignon."

The 2009 Rhys Horseshoe received 94 points from Allen Meadows – Burghound, "A highly expressive and more immediate nose of spice, floral elements and a ripe combination of plum, red currant and blueberry fruit aromas merges seamlessly with rich, generous and supple medium weight plus flavors that possess lovely detail and precision on the superbly deep and remarkably long finish. The firm tannins are well-integrated and this should age well yet because of the abundance of dry extract, actually be approachable young, at least with an hour or so of air. In short, this is a knockout.”

The Rhys San Matteo 2010 received 94 points from Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, “The 2010 Pinot Noir (San Mateo County) is simply fabulous. Rich dark cherries, crushed flowers, mint and spices burst from the glass. This is a hugely delicious wine from Rhys. The 80% whole clusters are nicely balanced by the sheer depth of the fruit. This is a flat out stunning wine from Rhys. In 2010 the San Mateo is the entry-level Pinot. The 2010 is bottled under San Mateo appellation, as it includes fruit from Bearwallow (in Anderson Valley) rather than the more typical collection of sites from the Santa Cruz Mountains. Once again, one of the appellation-level Rhys Pinots shines.”

Chateau de Beaucastel Chateauneuf-du-Pape 2001

As one of the most renowned wines from the Rhône Valley in southeastern France, Châteauneuf-du-Pape is well-known as a prestigious French wine, but also for its 14th-century papal connections as it means 'The Pope's new castle.' Châteauneuf-du-Pape is known for its bold Grenache-based red blends. Officially, the region makes both red and white wines with up to 13 different grapes (unofficially, 20). A great bottle of Châteauneuf-du-Pape Rouge bursts with rich raspberry and plummy fruit flavors. As it evolves, you'll taste notes of dusted leather, game, and herbs. As if that wasn't enough, CdP Rouge often finishes on a sweet-strawberry tingle that glows in the back of your throat from elevated alcohol. But the best way to learn is to taste and try for yourself with this great collection!

Rhys Vineyards Chardonnay - Horseshoe Vineyards 2017 & 2018 in Magnum

estimated value: $400

1 - Magnum Rhys Vineyards Horseshoe Vineyard Chardonnay 2018

1 - Magnum Rhys Vineyards Horseshoe Vineyard Chardonnay 2017

"The 2017 Chardonnay Horseshoe Vineyard has toast, smoke and gunflint notions to begin, giving way to lemon pith, cream and stony scents with a restrained core of white peach with citrus blossom and honey in the background." 92 points - Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

Planted in 2004 with a total of 17.5 acres, Horseshoe Ranch is our most beautiful vineyard site. The ridge between the vineyards protects Horseshoe from some of the direct ocean influence but allows for similarly cool temperatures. More importantly, Horseshoe lies on a ridge of sedimentary shale that has made its way to surface over the millenia. This lightweight, brittle rust-mottled shale is prevalent throughout the surface and soil providing for low vigor and outstanding drainage. The wines produced at Horseshoe are uniquely minerally, precise and focused. They offer an almost palpable tension that greatly rewards aging. - winemaker notes

estimated value: $100

Scott Dilyard of Venture Wines was going to be with us for Heart's Delight in 2020 and kindly included this magnum for the digital auction and will sign the bottle to the winner. Venture Wines is a California-based boutique wine label featuring the revered essence of California's Napa and Russian River Valleys. Taking their winemaking cues from both old world and new world traditions, the 216 Cuveé is our flagship wine, a rich blend of Merlot and Cab Franc. In our single varietal Chardonnay, Cabernet, Merlot and Pinot Noir wines, they respect how the high-quality fruit they select reflects both nature and nurture in the vineyard. Embracing this union, these wines show each varietal's natural essence nuanced by the conditions experienced in each vintage.

162 Château Léoville-Poyferré 2016 - 1 bottle

estimated value: $120

97+ points from Robert Parker's Wine Advocate, "Deep garnet-purple colored, the 2016 Léoville Poyferré hits the ground running with intense cassis, violets, dark chocolate, menthol and fragrant earth notions complemented by nuances of cigar box and smoked meats. Medium to full-bodied, the palate is charged with energetic, super intense black fruit and floral layers, beautifully supported with super firm, ripe, grainy tannins and seamless freshness. This liquid is simply alive in the mouth, culminating in an epically long finish that will leave your mouth practically tingling. WOW!"

Kirwan is an infinitely charming estate. The late 18th century château was built by Mark Kirwan, a prosperous Irish businessman who combined two small adjoining vineyards in the village of Cantenac and gave his name to the new entity. In the book, "Thomas Jefferson on Wine" the preesident praised the wine greatly during a trip to Bordeaux in 1787, noting that "Château de Quirouen" was in the 2nd category, along with "Ségur", "Lynch", etc.

Château Kirwan was listed as the first of the third growths in 1855. The Schÿler family purchased Kirwan in 1926. Originating from cities belonging to the Hanseatic League, the Schÿlers came to Bordeaux in 1739 to establish a wine business. They made major investments at Kirwan starting in the 1970s and are closely identified with this great wine. This incredible vertical will give you a walk through six years of vintages and the bottles all rate an average of 90 points from Robert Parker's Wine Advocate.

164 Tower Suite Stay at Ocean House in Watch Hill, Rhode Island estimated value: $10,000

Two-Night stay in the impressive Tower Suite at Ocean House, a historic Rhode Island luxury hotel, with breakfast for two people. The Ocean House, which opened in 1868, is impressive, with its massive grounds overlooking the ocean and quintessential Victorian-style architecture. In 2003, the hotel was completely rebuilt to restore it to its original grandeur, retaining original pieces inside and outside.

The property located in the seaside village of Watch Hill, Rhode Island which is home to exclusive mansions overlooking the ocean. Cute little boutiques, ice cream shops, and gorgeous water views can be found on the town's main street, just a quick walk from the hotel. The atmosphere is one of laid-back luxury, and most guests entertain themselves with simple pleasures such as having a drink on The Verandah or watching the sun set on the hotel's private beach. Ocean House was ranked Traveler + Leisure top 100 hotels in the world and also made Conde Nast Traveler's Gold List.

The Tower Suite offers grand accommodations and dramatic views of the Atlantic, Napatree Point, Stonington and Watch Hill. Decorated by Greenwich-based designer, Cindy Rinfret, the suite has two bedrooms and a day bed, and can sleep up to five people.

169 2011 Next of Kyn Cumulus Vineyard No. 5 - Box Set with 1 Magnum and 3 bottles

estimated value: $1,500

97 points! "While I reviewed the 2011 Cumulus Vineyard #5 last year, I was thrilled to be able to retaste it this go around. Showing consistently, with tons of savory, meaty characteristics in its currants, cassis, ground herbs and wood smoke-like aromas and flavors, this is a full-bodied, gorgeously concentrated 2011 that shows the freshness and purity of the vintage, yet backs it up with plenty of texture and length. Give it a few years and enjoy bottles through 2032." – Robert Parker's Wine Advocate

Next of Kyn was introduced by the talented Manfred and Elaine Krankl in 2007 as a completely separate operation from his Sine Qua Non wines. Next of Kyn wines are sourced from their Cumulus Vineyard that is planted around their estate in Oakview. Each Next of Kyn release are sold in box set which contains three 750ml and one magnum. Production is extremely low, so getting your hands on these phenomenal bottles could be tough, but today is your lucky day!

171 George Ceremonial Vineyard Pinot Noir 2019 - 2 Magnums

estimated value: $240

George Levkoff is a Heart's Delight veteran and our favorite one-man-show. With only 148 cases made, George crafts Pinot Noir the "old-school" Burgundian way, and savvy sommeliers around the country keep spreading his gospel. And nowhere more so than Las Vegas, where, at last count, George Pinot Noirs grace the wine lists of nearly 100 top restaurants (Joel Robuchon, Guy Savoy, Spago and Picasso to name a few). In California, you'll find George on just about every top restaurant wine list in the state such as The French Laundry, Cut, and Gordon Ramsay. The eye-widening list is a testament to the power of these beautiful wines.

173 Vincent Girardin Le Montrachet Grand Cru 2002 - 2 bottles

estimated value: $1,100

From one of our favorites whom we miss very much, these lovely bottles are from the cellar of J.D. Murphy and selected for this auction by the wonderful Genevieve Murphy. For those who were lucky to know J.D., you will know that these bottles are well-cellared and well taken care of.

Since its foundation in 1980 in Santenay, Vincent Girardin has become one of the most famous domains in Meursault. He began at the ripe age of 19 years old, and made his first wines from 5 acres of vineyards that he had inherited from his parents. His strong desire for success demanded him to create relationships with suppliers and growers- a practice that was just beginning to rise in Burgundy at that time. With the help of winemaker Eric Germain, who was brought on to the team in 2003, Vincent discovered that he wanted to do as little intervention as possible with the fruit to create a level of premium Burgundian offerings.

"Superripe aromas of stone fruits, minerals and hazelnut. Thick and powerful on the palate, with supersweet apricot, nut oil and menthol flavors. A huge wine of impressive solidity and extraordinary sweetness. " Vinous, 92 points

David Arthur Vineyards Mixed Case

estimated value: $1,145

3 - bottles David Arthur Cabernet Sauvignon 2002

2 - bottles David Arthur Cabernet Sauvignon 2003

2 - bottles David Arthur Cabernet Sauvignon 2004

2 - bottles David Arthur Cabernet Sauvignon 2005

1 - bottle David Arthur Cabernet Sauvignon 2008

1 - bottle David Arthur Cabernet Sauvignon 2010

1 - bottle David Arthur Meritaggio 2008

The origins of David Arthur Vineyards date back to 1950's and today the estate is best known for its high-elevation Cabernet Sauvignon and Cabernet Sauvignon-based wines. The vineyards, located on Napa Valley's eastern ridge and the soils are volcanic, rocky, and low in vigor – ideal for the production of Cabernet Sauvignon. The Meritaggio is a Bordeaux-style blend with an Italian accent, this red benefits from a small percentage of Sangiovese, which provides the “aggio” on the end of the name as well as a spicy note of black cherry and pepper.

179 Kistler Vineyards 'Cuvée Natalie' Silver Belt Pinot Noir 2014 & 2013

estimated value: $330

The 2014 received 95 points from Robert Parker and 96 points from Antonio Galloni, "The 2014 Pinot Noir Silver Belt Cuvée Natalie has more density, power and richness than the Kistler Vineyard, with darker tonalities of fruit, to match its inner sweetness. The distinctive aromatics of Swan clone are especially pronounced today. Translucent and expressive, with striking shades of red/purplish fruits, the 2014 is magnificent today. Silky tannins and soft contours will make the 2014 nearly impossible to resist upon release."

The 2013 vintage received 95 points from Robert Parker, "The 2013 Pinot Noir Silver Belt Cuvée Natalie, from another Sonoma Coast site, shows darker fruits, more meat, black cherries and black raspberries with underbrush and spice."

185 Reisacher Estate's Rare Collection

estimated value: $1,050

5 - bottles Reisacher Estate Inaugural Release Cabernet Sauvignon (2016)

1 - bottle Reisacher Estate Alpasión Cabernet Sauvignon 2017

1 - bottle Reisacher Estate Calma Cabernet Sauvignon 2017

In 2015, winemaker Gerhard Reisacher's reputation was riding high. Robert Parker had just scored his three 2013 Delectus Cabernet Sauvignons 96, 95+ and 94+ and said: "Kudos to Delectus for making wines that will ultimately prove the magnificent aging potential of what they're doing in Knight's Valley."

But Gerhard's life was changing. He and his wife, who had co-founded Delectus, split. In the settlement, he left Delectus but kept the vineyard. The following year, he sold most of the Cabernet Sauvignon grapes to a prestigious winery - but kept the very best to make tiny amounts of 2016 Reisacher Estate Cabernet Sauvignon. He did the same in 2017. But following that, the owner of Peter Michael Winery, which adjoined his vineyard on the slopes of Mt. St. Helena, made him an offer he couldn't refuse and he sold the vineyard. Sir Peter said: "I have admired Gerhard's work and his vines...and I am very happy that they are part off then PMW estate."

So not only was Reisacher Estate's production tiny, using the very best of the grapes that had earned stratospheric Parker scores, there were only two vintages of it. This is your opportunity to obtain seven bottles of something truly rare and delicious. Cellar Tracker gives the wines an average score of 94.4: (pricing is based on release price of $150 per bottle as there is none currently listed for sale).

188 Charles Heidsieck “Blanc des Millénaires” Brut Champagne 1995

estimated value: $200

96 points from Robert Parker’s Wine Advocate “Deep, pure and fresh on the fruit-intense and complex nose, the 1995 Blanc des Millenaires is still young and incredibly fresh on the palate. This is refreshingly pure, concentrated, fruity and perfectly round Champagne that reveals a great tension and mineral complexity. It also has a long and salty finish.”

190 Ram's Gate Estate Carneros Pinot Noir 2013 - Magnum, Signed

estimated value: $160

This wine was aged almost a year in 45% new French oak. It shows its powerful concentration of cherry-vanilla jam and tobacco, the tannins layered and thick. A smoky element of char permeates the finish.

Roots, stems and dried leaves make for an earthy entry into this estate appellation wine. Wraparound tannins and oak emphasize a gritty, grainy texture marked by robust cherry ripeness and secondary characteristics of black tea and rose.

Restrictions: Must be 21 to order. 192 Winter Wine Estate Cabernet Sauvignon 2004 - 3L

estimated value: $1,400

Winter is an ultra-luxury wine brand in the Napa Valley that creates highly-coveted wine in small quantities. Hand-made using the finest techniques and processes, the wine has been rated as one of the Napa Valley's top Cabernet Sauvignons. Winter was started in 2004 with the mission of producing handcrafted wine of uncompromising quality and distinction. In the first release year, this received 95 points from Robert Parker, "Classic creme de cassis, charcoal, and graphite notes emerge from the dense ruby/purple 2004 Cabernet Sauvignon, an exceptionally pure, young wine with a Bordeaux-like structure super-imposed over the opulence and extravagantly rich fruit provided by Napa. It possesses superb purity and density as well as a long finish."

Looking for an experience like few others in the area? Look no further - Stay one night in Deluxe Accommodations for two at The Ritz-Carlton St. Louis. Tucked in the Arts and Garden District, catch a glimpse of the skyline from a balcony, share a meal in St. Louis's largest dine-in wine cellar, or pamper yourself with a massage at the hotel spa. Venture outside of the hotel and spend the day at the Science Center and City Museum, followed by a visit to the Anheuser-Busch brewery and see the famous Clydesdale horses, or see the famous arch. St. Louis is a multi-faceted city, one where historic architecture rubs elbows with new restaurants, and being a sports fan could imply a love of baseball - the hotel is near St. Louis' most noteworthy experiences.

199 Beaux Frères Pinot Noir Magnums

estimated value: $300

Beaux Frères Pinot Noir The Beaux Frères Vineyard 2004, Willamette Valley
1 Magnum

Beaux Frères Pinot Noir The Beaux Frères Vineyard 2003, Willamette Valley
1 Magnum

The Beaux Freres estate property, an old pig farm, is 24 acres of tightly-spaced, low-yielding vines on the steep slopes of Ribbon Ridge in Northern Willamette Valley. Winemaking philosophy and technique follow a commitment to minimal intervention, with native yeast fermentations and only one racking prior to bottling. All the wines are unfinned and unfiltered. The wine remains in French oak for a period of 10-12 months, in varying proportions of new wood depending on the strength of the vintage. Because of the "reductive" winemaking style, which keeps the wine away from oxygen as much as possible, Beaux Freres Pinots are made for bottle age. The end result is a true expression of prime Willamette terroir.

Restrictions: Must be 21 to order. Available for shipping through MacArthur Beverages [not able to ship to: AL, DE, IL, IA, KY, MA, MD, ME, MS, ND, NH, NY, OK, PA, SD, TX, UT, VA, VT] Shipping fee will be added to the final cost or available for pick-up by appointment at our Arlington, Virginia office beginning the week of May 10th.

201 Steven Spurrier's Bride Valley Vineyard

estimated value: $70

1 - bottle Bride Valley Vineyard, Dorset (England) Blanc de Blancs Sparkling Wine 2014

Many tributes are being paid to legend Steven Spurrier (1941-2021), as his contributions to the wine world have been vast. In appreciation of Steven Spurrier's life and work, it felt fitting to sip a glass of Bride Valley. Spurrier is arguably best known for his historic 1976 blind wine tasting the "Judgement of Paris," however, one of his most lasting achievements is his English sparkling wine estate, Bride Valley, in Dorset, which delivered its first commercial harvest in 2011. Spurrier's Bride Valley has helped raise English sparkling wine from obscurity to the top of wine lists. The 2014 Blanc de Blanc is elegantly dry and balanced with notes of lemon zest, pear, lychee, honeysuckle, and hints of brioche. The palate rounds everything out with a subtle yeasty creaminess that boosts the lemon zest flavor. Irresistible now with enticing acidity on the long finish." 95 points Miranda Franco, Wine Review Online

202 Nespresso VertuoPlus Deluxe Black Bundle

estimated value: $230

From coffee enthusiasts to instant coffee drinkers, Nespresso has captivated just about anyone who drinks coffee. And, fortunately, that's basically anyone alive right now - about 80% of the world consumes coffee every day, whether as their sole source of caffeine or along with tea. By far the most immediate reason to buy a Nespresso coffee maker is that you can make espresso at home. But of course, it's not just making espresso: It's making a good espresso without having to deal with anything else than just one button.

VertuoPlus offers the perfect combination of style and convenience for a unique coffee experience at home. It brews a wide range of high quality coffees (5oz, 8oz, 14oz), espressos and double espressos. Includes Aeroccino3 milk frother for easy preparation of Cappuccinos and Lattes. Measures 9.1" x 13.2" x 12.8".

Restrictions: Available for shipping the week of May 10th [$15 shipping fee will be added to the final cost] or available for pick-up by appointment at our Arlington, Virginia office beginning the week of May 10th.
