Dinner for Two at Gideon Sweet in Chicago
estimated value: $100

We are so sad that Chef Graham Elliot was unable to join us today - but he is offering dinner for two to our lucky winners. His new restaurant, Gideon Sweet is "a craft cocktail-focused menu with 20 dishes or so that are going to be constantly evolving and moving around the dining room. Think creative dim sum, if you will, based on our travels," said Elliot.

12 - bottles Bodegas Condado de Haza Alenza 1995

estimated value: $720

"A sensational effort, the 1995 Alenza reveals a deep ruby/purple color accompanied by scents of damp earth, melted licorice, black currants, and spicy wood. Full-bodied and rich with substantial tannin. There are 2,000 cases of the Alenza, named after both Alejandro and his wife, Esperenza. Aged 30 months in primarily new American oak, it is, as Alejandro said, 'a wine for traditionalists.'" 91 points - Robert Parker

"America's Nebbiolo" by Brien Cole DMV Wine Artist estimated value: $1,300

We would like to welcome Brien Cole to his first Heart's Delight - he is here today and is completing this painting live at Heart's Delight! Brien Cole's paintings have been described as vibrant, detailed and alluring, with the ability to draw the viewer into the painting. Many initially mistake his paintings for photographs and are amazed at the level of detail and realism. He is well-recognized for his still life compositions focusing on wine themes. Local wineries such as Barboursville, King Family, Perigeaux and Elk Run Vineyards collect his work to hang in their tasting rooms.

Down Under - Circa 1998

estimated value: $410

- 1 - bottle Clarendon Hills Liandra Syrah 1998
- 1 - bottle Dutschke St Jakobi Single Vineyard Shiraz 1998
- 1 - bottle Howarth's Pycnantha Hill Shiraz 1998
- 1 - bottle Lengs & Cooter Swinton Cabernet Sauvignon 1998
- 1 - bottle Paxton Vineyards MV Shiraz 1998
- 2 - bottles RBJ Theologicum 1998
- 2 - bottles Rosabrook Abattoir Block Shiraz 1998
- 1 - bottle Shingleback Shiraz McLaren Vale 1998
- 2 - bottles Trevor Jones Boots Grenache 1998

"It rarely happens this way but as far as 1998 is concerned, virtually all Australian wine regions had the opportunity to produce their best wine. Particular highlights are Coonawarra reds, while shiraz from the traditional South Australian regions of the Barossa Valley, Clare and McLaren Vale are exceptional. Crammed with typical richness and opulent intensity of fruit, the best ones manage a restraint and elegance which is totally beguiling. Never have Australian winemakers had a better combination of ripe fruit and tannin to work on. While some rain made life marginally more difficult for younger Margaret River vineyards, even the Hunter Valley had an unusually rain-free vintage that helped fashion some classic wines." – Decanter

6 - 375 ml Weingut Robert Weil Kiedricher Gräfenberg Riesling Auslese 2003

estimated value: $360

Founded in 1875, Weingut Robert Weil is considered to be one of the Rheingau's younger wine estates. It is located in the heart of Kiedrich, a village first documented in the year 950. Kiedrich Turmberg and Kiedrich Gräfenberg, the estate's top vineyards, are among the finest sites in the Rheingau. The estate cultivates 90 hectares of vineyards, of which 100 percent are planted with Riesling.

The Auslese is produced from a special selection of very ripe clusters, usually (but not always) with a fair amount of botrytis. Auslese is a lush, intensely fruity wine, with a massive, yet elegant structure. The immense sweetness is beautifully balanced by firm acidity.

1 - Jeroboam Van Duzer Barrel Select Oregon Pinot Noir 1999

estimated value: $300

This Jeroboam is equivalent to 5 liters or 6.75 bottles! The 1999 Van Duzer Barrel Select Oregon Pinot Noir is in a special commemorative bottle with the winery's art nouveau label beautifully etched by the Bergin Glass Works of Napa Valley. Van Duzer Vineyards is perched aside a knoll surrounded on three sides by vines, the vineyard is situated in the gateway of the Van Duzer Corridor, a deep gap in the Oregon Coastal Range that draws brisk air from the Pacific Ocean. These cooling gusts moderate the temperatures over the vineyard, guaranteeing a long, beneficial growing season year after year. While the surrounding regions can experience punishing heat and damaging cold, Van Duzer's vineyards experience more temperate shifts, allowing for optimal maturation and thorough flavor development.

Delivered from the winery to donor following the 2007 Santa Fe Wine & Chile Fiesta auction and has been stored since its purchase in 2009 in a temperature controlled cellar.

2000 Bordeaux Trio

estimated value: $260

1 - bottle Château Malescot St. Exupéry 2000

1 - bottle Château Moulin Saint-Georges Saint-Émilion 2000

1 - bottle Château Vray Croix de Gay 2000

2000 Bordeaux is a unique and important Bordeaux vintage. You have to go back to 1990 to find a year that was this good in all appellations, and at all different price levels. 2000 Bordeaux are ripe, opulent, round and aromatic. They are balanced, fresh and combine concentration with elegance.

"This estate [Malescot St. Exupéry], which has continued to impress in recent years, hit a home run in 2000...This wine is deep bluish/purple with some lightening at the edge, and its floral nose displays notes of melted licorice, crushed rock, blueberries and black raspberries. It is a wine of extraordinary balance, equilibrium, and purity, with supple tannins, medium to full-bodied, a concentrated effort..." 95 points - Robert Parker

"The finest Moulin St.-Georges ever produced, the exuberant, rich, textured 2000 boasts sumptuous aromas and flavors of creme de cassis and blueberry liqueur. The new oak is concealed by the wealth of fruit. While there is abundant tannin in the finish, it is both sweet and well-integrated..." 91 points - Robert Parker

The 2000 Vray Croix de Gay is "deep plum/purple, with a flamboyant perfume of black fruits intermixed with creosote, vanilla, plums, and cherries...It is sweet, lush, expansive, and a big improvement over previous vintages." - Robert Parker

Trimbach Cuvée Frédéric Émile Riesling

estimated value: $330

2 - bottles Trimbach Cuvée Frédéric Émile Riesling 2000

2 - bottles Trimbach Cuvée Frédéric Émile Riesling 2002

The Trimbach family continues to render some of the world's finest Riesling. "According to Jean Trimbach, the 2000 Riesling Cuvée Frédéric Émile has a higher level of dry extract (23 grams per liter) than any other Frederic Emile ever made. This wine reveals demure mineral aromas and a concentrated, tightly-wound character. Layers of minerals and gravel can be found intertwined with candied citrus fruits in its juicy, yet structured personality. It is intense, yet immensely youthful, and demands cellaring..." 91 points - Wine Advocate

The superbly-concentrated 2002 Riesling Frederic Emile has broth-like carnal and chalky traits [reminds] one of Chablis. Here is a wine to strain through your teeth, and one possessed of vivacious, ripe acids, with lemon, grapefruit and faintly bitter black fruit notes over a foundation of chalk, leading to a long, juicy finish." - 92 points - The Wine Advocate

Six Pack of Rhône Wines

estimated value: $240

Along with Bordeaux and Burgundy, Rhône wines are some of the world's greatest red wines. The Northern Rhône produces powerful, aromatically complex and age worthy red wines, generally in very limited quantities, from the noble Syrah grape. The Southern Rhône is a nearly bottomless source of somewhat more rustic and often even richer blends based on the high-alcohol Grenache grape, in a style that can only be described as more "southern" in flavor—that is, Rhône wines offering a richer mouth feel, a more roasted and sometimes liqueur-like fruit character, and notes of wild herbs and spices.

1 - bottle Erna Schein Jersey Boy Red 2005

2 - bottles Erna Schein Jersey Boy Red 2006

Enjoy these three bottles of Erna Schein Jersey Boy Red while serving some delicious hors d'oeuvres on your new slate serving tray! "Known as Behrens and Hitchcock until the departure of Bob Hitchcock, this artisanal winery on the top of Spring Mountain has changed its name to Erna Schein. The proprietors, Les and Lisa Behrens, continue to fine tune an intriguing portfolio of wines. Under the new Erna Schein label, the 2005 Jersey Boy is 41% Merlot, 23% Cabernet Franc, 18% Cabernet Sauvignon, 12% Syrah, and 6% Petit Verdot. Exhibiting a deep ruby/purple color along with extroverted aromas, soft tannins, plenty of black cherry and blackberry fruit, and full-bodied opulence..." 90-92 points - Robert Parker

"The Erna Schein offerings start with the 2006 Jersey Boy, an innovative blend of 46% Syrah, 34% Merlot, and the rest Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot. It displays a deep ruby/purple color, earthy, meaty, black currant notes..." - Robert Parker

Silver Oak and Twomey Cellars

estimated value: $160

1 - bottle Silver Oak Alexander Valley Cabernet Sauvignon 2013 (in wooden display box)

1 - bottle Twomey Cellars Merlot 2013 (in wooden display box)

Continuous improvement - or the notion that our best wines are still ahead of us - has been the driving force at Silver Oak for more than 45 years. At Twomey, they combine this philosophy, experience, and a sense of curiosity with the exploration of outstanding vineyards and growing regions from California to Oregon.

"Their 2013 Alexander Valley Cabernet Sauvignon is garnet in color with a ruby red rim. It has an alluring nose of blackberry bramble, baking spices and black olive. Aromas of vanilla, cassis and sage fill the glass, revealing the influence of American oak barrel aging. On the palate, notes of raspberry are complemented with lingering acidity and a finish of dusty, silky tannins. Given proper cellaring, this wine will provide drinking pleasure through 2036." - Winemaker Notes

The 2013 Twomey Cellars Merlot has "aromas of black cherry, coffee, licorice, and creamy bright fruit. On the palate, chocolate-covered cherries, and hoisin sauce. Elegant, nuanced, texturally plush with velvety tannins." - Winemaker Notes

Pair of Coeur de Terre Vineyard Pinot Noir

estimated value: $225

1 - bottle Coeur de Terre Vineyard Renelle's Block Reserve Pinot Noir 2005

1 - bottle Coeur de Terre Vineyard Renelle's Block Reserve Pinot Noir 2006

We were so excited to have Scott Neal from Coeur de Terre with us at the Congress Has Heart Reception for his third Heart's Delight! Here are a pair of pinots to celebrate his participation.

The 2005 Renelle's Block Reserve Pinot Noir "...expresses earth and minerals, along with dried cherries, vanilla and smoky toast. The wine demonstrates a depth and richness along with flavors of dried cherries, cola, dried lavender, with hints of rose and pomegranate. Oak is present and nicely integrates with the complex fruit found in Renelle's Block Pinot Noir." - Winemaker Notes

The 2006 Renelle's Block Reserve Pinot Noir has "bright red color with ruby depth. A full toast oak greets the nose, offering vanilla, red raspberry, and dried cherry. The finish lingers with delicate spice bouquet. Wood is present and integrates nicely with the complex aromatics Renelle's Block offers." - Winemaker Notes

Orin Swift Cellars Papillon Dinner Party

estimated value: $240

1 - bottle Orin Swift Cellars Papillon 2013

1 - bottle Orin Swift Cellars Papillon 2015

Two bottles of wine, a Bambeco slate serving board, mini slate menu boards, slate coasters and a Perfect Pairings book is recipe for great fun! Papillon is Orin Swift Cellars' Napa Valley Cabernet-based Bordeaux blend-proudly consisting of all five of the varietals. Sourced from hand-picked vineyards across the various Napa Valley AVAs, this vintage of Papillon epitomizes the house style at Orin Swift - accessible, powerful and complex.

"This killer wine has an inky purple color and offers notes of espresso roast intermixed with white chocolate, creme de cassis, blackberry and a touch of toasty oak. The wine was aged 16 months in French oak, of which 40% was new. Broad and opulent, with great intensity, purity and depth, this is another stunner from Dave Phinney, a.k.a. Orin Swift." 95 points - Robert Parker

The 2015 Papillon is "very deep purple-black colored, the 2015 Papillon Proprietary Red features expressive crème de cassis, mulberries, plum preserves and chocolate box notes with wafts of underbrush, dried herbs and Indian spices. Full-bodied, rich, opulent and spicy in the mouth, it has a velvety texture and seamless freshness, finishing long with a lively pepper and herbs lift..." 94 points - The Wine Advocate

Series One Andy Warhol by Cuvaision

estimated value: $250

Collector's Box Includes:

1 - bottle Cuvaision Andy Warhol Chardonnay 2014

1 - bottle Cuvaision Andy Warhol Bordeaux Blend 2014

In the early 1980s, Alexander Schmidheiny, owner of Cuvaision Winery, commissioned Andy Warhol to create numerous screen prints for his Cuvaision wine labels. In his signature Pop art style, Warhol configured grapes in stunning patterns and colors - all of which have been rarely seen until now.

"The Warhol Chardonnay reflects the fine and countless details of farming, vinification, and the sensorial art of blending, barrel by barrel; to forge a Chardonnay that is quintessentially Cuvaision. A true tête-de-cuvée that boasts all the power, grace, elegance and longevity of their finest Chardonnay." - Winemaker Notes

"The art of blending uniquely hued varieties integrates the strengths of each to create this stunning and singular, age-worthy Red Blend. This wine intricately weaves hand-selected barrels of Cabernet Sauvignon (78%), Malbec (15%) and Cabernet Franc (7%)." - Winemaker Notes

Steele Stymie "Founders Reserve" Magnum Set

estimated value: $200

1 - Magnum Steele Stymie Founders Reserve Merlot 2014

1 - Magnum Steele Stymie Founders Reserve Syrah 2014

This special pair of magnums are signed by winemaker Jed Steele. Stymie was a famous racehorse in mid-twentieth century American history. Stymie was known for never giving up the lead when he gained it. He notorious for this in fact that the horse callers brought the word back into the English vernacular by calling out "They've been stymied again!!" In 1950 Jed's father, a newspaperman, wagered a bet on Stymie that paid off well. So well, in fact, that the winnings financed the Steele family's move from New York City to San Francisco. As a tribute to the horse and to Jed's father, the Stymie label is reserved for rare, small production wines of the highest quality they produce.

Three Pack of 2007 Cabernet Sauvignon estimated value: $195

- 1 - bottle Delectus Mutti's Pride Cabernet Sauvignon 2007
- 1 - bottle Dyer Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon 2007
- 1 - bottle Hanna Bismark Mountain Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon 2007

More great Cabernets were made in Napa in 2007 than ever before in California. More than half the nearly 400 new releases earned outstanding marks (90 points or higher) on release. Another 50 were in rarefied air, above the classic 95-point mark. At the time, vintners remarked on the uniform quality of the wines, irrespective of district. Cabernet routinely knocks it out of the park, but 2007 was like an All-Star Game home-run derby. The best 2007s exhibited breathtaking qualities early on, with exceptional depth and purity of flavors. They are led by complex aromas of dark fruit, with spicy overtones, these reds are impeccably balanced and concentrated, with finishes that reveal extra flavor nuances. The vintage offers a range of styles, running the gamut from those that deliver opulent, mouthcoating flavors to those that are more delicate and elegant in character.

estimated value: $150

"The 2003 LMV Salon is a blend of 60% Cabernet Sauvignon, 25% Cabernet Franc, 6% Malbec, 5% Petit Verdot and 4% Merlot. It takes its name from the iconic San Francisco socialite, Lillie Hitchcock Coit, who established a "salon" at Larkmead. This wine offers gorgeous notes of creme de cassis, background oak and licorice, and hints of lead pencil shavings and spring flowers. Strikingly complex, this stunning wine reveals a freshness and vivacity that go against the general reputation of this vintage...This exquisite, historic source for great Cabernet Sauvignon situated on the valley floor, just north of St. Helena, remains one of my favorite wineries of the region..." 96 points - Robert Parker

1 - Magnum George Wine Company Sonoma Coma Pinot Noir 2015

estimated value: $180

We are so sorry to be missing George at Heart's Delight this year - a Heart's Delight veteran he is our favorite one-man-show. George Levkoff crafts Pinot Noir the "old-school" Burgundian way, and savvy sommeliers around the country keep spreading his gospel. And nowhere more so than Las Vegas, where, at last count, George Pinot Noirs grace the wine lists of nearly 100 top restaurants (Joel Robuchon, Spago and Picasso to name a few). New York comes close to this number, including iconic spots such as Craft, Marea, and The 21 Club. Closer to home, you'll find George at BLT Steak, Proof, and The Inn at Little Washington to name a few.

4 - bottles Allegrini Amarone della Valpolicella Classico 1997

estimated value: $360

"Opaque, dark ruby, with dense rim showing orange tinges. Peppery, sweet, intense, unmistakably passito, and lifted at the beginning. Savoury at first, becoming sweeter and more intense with aeration. Impressions keep changing with aeration and show more development and age. Only the merest hint of tar. Very lively, dark fruit palate, with lots of structuring acidity. Rustic tannic core makes it a full-blown food wine." - Jancis Robinson

12 - bottles Majella Cabernet Sauvignon 1999

estimated value: $410

"The dense ruby/purple-colored 1999 Cabernet Sauvignon (100% Cabernet Sauvignon aged in French oak, of which 60% was new) is Bordeaux-like, offering up classic aromas of tobacco, spice box, dried herbs, cedar, and black currants...An elegant, medium-bodied style, a graceful personality, and a long, textured finish revealing sweet tannin..." 91 points - Robert Parker

1 - bottle Vérité La Joie 2000

estimated value: $390

The name Vérité, French for truth, stands for wines that reflect their soil with integrity. Thirteen of Vérité's wines have perfect scores. Each wine is a distinct blend of unique components harvested from small vineyard blocks, culminating in a meticulously formed union of grape varieties, climate, soil expression and winemaking technique. The 2000 La Joie which means "joy" is "made entirely from Sonoma fruit, this soft, round, fully mature blend of 72% Cabernet Sauvignon, 19% Merlot and 9% Cabernet Franc... this seductive 2000 is one of the most drinkable and charming..." - Robert Parker

4 - bottles RdV Vineyards Lost Mountain 2014

estimated value: $500

As Thomas Jefferson once said, "No occupation is so delightful to me as the culture of the earth." It seems only fitting that the RdV founding father and fellow Virginian could sum up so eloquently the essence of the RdV philosophy. They intervene as little as possible in the natural process, letting the earth and the elements come together to create something sublime. All of the fruit that goes into their wine is grown on the estate and shepherded with care from vine to bottle. "The depth and energy immediately apparent in this wine is a signature of the 2014 growing season. The wine enters with a concentration of crisp black fruits coupled with subtle youthful notes reminiscent of a French patisserie. Generously structured, with ample fine grain velvety tannins supporting a long mineral finish, the wine offers immense pleasure now and expect it will for quite some time. It will indeed be a vintage we will follow with great pleasure for years to come." - Winemaker Notes

Château Lagrange Lot estimated value: $250

2 - bottles Château Lagrange 2005

2 - bottles Château Lagrange 2013

Grapes have been grown at Château Lagrange, St.-Julien, for more than 600 years. Even Thomas Jefferson knew its wines. A Third Growth in the Classification of 1855, it is the largest classified growth in the Medoc with 113 hectares under vine

The 2005 Lagrange has "a fabulous nose of currants, crushed raspberry and blackberry. Full-bodied, with perfectly integrated tannins and a long, caressing finish. Drink or hold." 96 points - James Suckling

"The 2013 Lagrange exhibits an attractive deep ruby color as well as less oak than is normally found during the first year of tasting. It offers supple tannins, excellent texture and good purity. This successful, medium-bodied 2013 should drink well for 8-10 years." - Robert Parker

2 - bottles Michèle Luyton Hermitage 2012

1 - bottle Paul Jaboulet Aîné Crozes-Hermitage Domaine de Thalabert 2009

1 - bottle Pierre Gonon Saint-Joseph 2012

Our auction committee started working on lots that interested them and this Northern Rhône Lot is a new one this year. The procurement effort is led by Diane Gross, hence the title of the lot. It is no surprise as to why they are interested in putting this lot together. "While small, the Northern Rhône includes some of France's most prestigious appellations. The name of one, Côte-Rôtie, meaning 'roasted slope' tells you what you need to know about the local climate. The summer sun shines all day long on vineyards carved from rocky hills, producing fully ripe grapes and tannic, concentrated, age worthy red Rhône wines. Syrah is the only red grape permitted in this area, but small percentages of white grapes are sometimes blended with the Syrah." - Total Wine & More

The “3 Bs” of Great Italian Wine - Barolo, Barbaresco and Brunello di Montalcino

estimated value: $250

Wine in Italy is nearly as essential as eating or sleeping. It is so ubiquitous there that there are about one million producers of wine in the country and nearly one thousand varieties of wine grapes are grown there.

Adding to sheer quantity and domestic enthusiasm for wine, Italy also boasts every possible microclimate that could be desirable for fine wine production. From the cold foggy mountains of Piedmont to the blazing heat of the south, Italy combines all major wine growing climates within a single country.

Maison Ilan Les Robardelles

estimated value: $260

2 - bottles Maison Ilan Les Robardelles, Volnay Premier Cru 2011

2 - bottles Maison Ilan Les Robardelles, Volnay Premier Cru 2012

Before founding Maison Ilan, Ray Walker lived in California, working in the finance industry. His wife, Christian, showed him how wine could compliment a meal, and this was something he knew absolutely nothing about before meeting her. After tasting Burgundies at a wine event, he started to appreciate how special wine could be. He was hooked. Maison Ilan is a négociant producer based in Nuits-St-Georges who is dedicated to premier cru and grand cru bottlings in a style that honors traditional Burgundies. The goal in the cellar is to express terroir as clearly as possible by use of open-top wooden tanks, native yeast fermentation, and little-to-no use of pumps or new oak barrels.

estimated value: $260

1 - bottle Rivers-Marie Cabernet Sauvignon 2014

1 - bottle Rivers-Marie Kanzler Vineyard Pinot Noir 2012

1 - bottle Rivers-Marie Summa Vineyard Pinot Noir 2010

Rivers-Marie wines are sold exclusively through a mailing list which has been full for some time now - this is a great opportunity to get your hands on their wines! "Thomas Rivers Brown and his wife Genevieve Marie Walsh have quietly developed one of California's most cherished Pinot Noir labels. Rivers-Marie produces very small amounts of Pinot Noir from a limited number of vineyard sources in the true Sonoma Coast, specifically the Occidental-Freestone area. Besides Summa Vineyard, which Brown purchased in 2010, grapes are sourced from many others vineyards including Kanzler Vineyard and the Cabernet is produced from the Corona Vineyard in Oakville and the Panek Vineyard in St. Helena." - Prince of Pinot

1 - bottle Château Lafite Rothschild Carruades de Lafite 1996

estimated value: $400

Château Lafite Rothschild's second wine, Carruades de Lafite presents similar characteristics to the Grand Vin, but with its own personality linked to a higher proportion of Merlot and to specific plots that are used to produce Carruades. The name comes from the Carruades plateau, a group of plots acquired in 1845 just next to the vines on the Château hilltop. "... The 1996, a blend of 63% Cabernet Sauvignon and 37% Merlot, may turn out to be the finest Carruades I have ever tasted. It possesses as much power, ripeness, and fleshy fruit (because of the high percentage of Merlot) as I have ever detected in this offering...It is a beautifully made wine with a subtle dosage of toasty new oak, an appealing texture, and excellent length..." - Robert Parker

1 - Magnum Ramey Pedregal Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon 2014

estimated value: $410

"David Ramey has long had one of the most impressive resumes for any California winemaker. He worked at Château Petrus in Bordeaux and for Christian Moueix at Dominus. He also consulted and worked for a number of high end Napa Valley wineries. Of course, his first love is Ramey Wine Cellars, and he has built an extensive empire of Chardonnays, Cabernet Sauvignons and more recently Syrahs as well as a tiny quantity of Pinot Noir." - Robert Parker

"The 2014 Cabernet Sauvignon Pedregal Vineyard possesses striking translucence for such a big wine. Rich and powerful in the glass, yet also remarkably light on its feet, the 2014 speaks to balance above all else. Dark cherry, plum, mocha, spice and new leather are nicely delineated, but it is the ensemble of aromas, flavors and textures that really works beautifully here." 92-95 points - Antonio Galloni, vinous

6 - bottles Château Cantemerle 1983

estimated value: $270

"Wine production at Cantemerle can be traced back as far as 1354. The property then spent a great amount of time in two families: the Villeneuves from 1576-1892 (under whose reign Cantemerle was awarded a fifth growth status in the 1855 Classification), followed by the Dubos until 1980, when it was bought by insurance firm, SMABTP." - The Wine Society

"Fully mature, this gorgeous wine has consistently offered a saturated dark ruby/garnet color, a gorgeous nose of melted licorice, lilacs, ripe black currants and plums, and a hint of blackberry. Always generous and supple, with sweet tannin, low acidity, and loads of fruit, this is a beauty and one of the most successful Cantemerles of the last 30 years." 90 points

2 - bottles Château Clinet 2009 - 100 points!

estimated value: $600

Robert Parker awarded the '09 Clinet 100 points! "Clinet has been on a hot streak lately and the 2009 appears to be the greatest wine ever made at the estate, surpassing even the late Jean-Michel Arcaute's monumental 1989. A blend of 85% Merlot and tiny amounts of Cabernet Franc (12%) and Cabernet Sauvignon (3%), this big Pomerol boasts an opaque, moonless night inky/blue/purple color in addition to a gorgeous perfume of blueberry pie, incense, truffles, black raspberries, licorice and wood smoke. Viscous and multi-dimensional with silky, sweet tannin, massive fruit concentration and full-bodied power, perfect Clinet."

1 - Magnum The Eyrie Vineyards Pinot Noir Reserve 1989

estimated value: $300

"In early 1965, after earning a degree in viticulture and enology from UC Davis, and several months of research in Europe, 25-year old David Lett moved to Oregon with '3,000 grape cuttings and a theory.' He was particularly determined to prove that stylistically pure Pinot Noir could be grown successfully outside of Burgundy. This was the first planting of Pinot Noir and related varieties in the Willamette Valley, and the first Pinot Gris in America. The Eyrie Vineyards 1975 Pinot Noir would become the first American Pinot Noir to compete successfully with the renowned pinot noirs of Burgundy (Paris, 1979; Beaune, 1980). Over the following decades, The Eyrie Vineyards established a reputation for elegant wines that are true expressions of variety and place and possess legendary aging abilities." - Willamette Valley Wineries Association

Champagne Trio with Riedel Glasses!

estimated value: $245

1 - bottle Bernard Brémont Champagne Millésime Ambonnay Grand Cru Brut 2011

1 - bottle De Margerie Grand Cru Brut Rose NV

1 - bottle Maily Blanc de Noirs Grand Cru Brut NV

Riedel Veritas Champagne Glass - Set of 4

These three bottles of champagne are extremely special because only 17 of Champagne's 319 villages currently enjoy Grand Cru status - and you are bringing home 3 of them! You will be sipping your new champagne in style with your new Riedel champagne glasses.

The 2011 Bernard Brémont has an "intensely spicy nose displays bright citrus, pear and mineral scents. I'd never have guessed that this was a pinot-dominant blend from Ambonnay." 91 points - Int'l Wine Cellar

Wine Spectator rated the De Margerie Grand Cru Brut Rose 91 points and is "fruit-forward, with ripe, candied flavors of strawberry, boysenberry and blackberry, accompanied by notes of toasted raisin bread, ground ginger and smoke."

Maily Blanc de Noirs is a "pure Pinot Noir, an unusual style, gives a powerful rich character to a wine. This ripe, dense and full-bodied Champagne is full of apricot, pear and green plum flavors." - Wine Enthusiast

6 - bottles Château Labégorce Zédé 2000

estimated value: $360

Château Labégorce Zédé, Cru Bourgeois from Margaux, last vintage was in 2009 - this is a rare opportunity to get your hands on their label! The château became a part of Château Labégorce, creating one 55ha estate. This has been the intention since the late Hubert Perrodo, the founder of the Perenco oil group bought Labégorce in 1989, then its neighbors Château de l'Abbé Gorsse de Gosse in 2002, and Labégorce Zédé in 2005. The three were combined before the French Revolution, and split into separate properties in the ensuing centuries. The 2000 Labégorce Zédé is "Fabulous aromas of crushed berries and dried flowers. Full-bodied, with extremely well-integrated tannins in a dense fruit structure. Turns smoky and ripe on the finish. Complex. Very Margaux. Finest ever from this estate." 92 points - Wine Spectator

300 2 - bottles Château Pontet-Canet 2010 estimated value: $600

100 points from Robert Parker! These two perfect wines are "an absolutely amazing wine... this blend of 65% Cabernet Sauvignon, 30% Merlot and the rest Cabernet Franc and Petit Verdot has close to 15% natural alcohol. It comes from one of the few biodynamic vineyards in Bordeaux. An astounding, compelling wine with the classic Pauillac nose more often associated with its cross-street neighbor, Mouton-Rothschild, creme de cassis, there are also some violets and other assorted floral notes. The wine has off-the-charts massiveness and intensity but never comes across as heavy, overbearing or astringent. The freshness, laser-like precision, and full-bodied, massive richness and extract are simply remarkable to behold and experience. It is very easy, to become jaded tasting such great wines from a great vintage, but it is really a privilege to taste something as amazing as this...Is there anything that proprietor Alfred Tesseron is not doing right? Talk about an estate that is on top of its game! Pontet-Canet's 2010 is a more structured, tannic and restrained version of their most recent perfect wine, the 2009. Kudos to Pontet-Canet!"

4 - 375 ml Graham's Vintage Port 1977

estimated value: $500

Robert Parker rates the 1997 Graham's Vintage Port 93 points says, "Graham is another great port house, producing one of the deepest-colored and sweetest styles of vintage port. Along with Taylor and Fonseca, Graham has probably been the most consistent producer of great port in the post-World War II era...Their vintage ports are truly sublime and sumptuous."

2009 California Chardonnay

estimated value: $660

- 1 - bottle Aubert Ritchie Vineyard Sonoma Coast Chardonnay 2009
- 1 - bottle Edge Hill Bacigalupi Vineyard Chardonnay 2009
- 1 - bottle Kistler Cuvée Cathleen Sonoma Valley Chardonnay 2009
- 1 - bottle Morlet Family Vineyards Coup de Coeur Chardonnay 2009
- 1 - bottle Pahlmeyer Napa Valley Chardonnay 2009
- 1 - bottle Peter Michael Ma Belle-Fille Chardonnay 2009

This lot will let you sample six different chardonnays from this great vintage - three of which are rated 95 points by the Wine Advocate. "It's hard to believe that up until about 30 years ago, this extremely popular varietal hid behind the veil of geographical names like Chablis and Puligny-Montrachet. Now grown all over the world and bottled by its varietal name, Chardonnay has achieved a level of branding unlike any other wine. From fresh, crisp and minerally with apple and lemon notes to rich and buttery with tropical fruit overtones, Chardonnay runs the gamut." - K&L Wine Merchants

305 430 Year Old Map of Bordeaux

estimated value: $400

This important history was without doubt one of the most widely read and used books in Europe at the time and included not only descriptions about the countryside, cities and towns but also about religion, nobility and descriptions about much of the unknown world. This map of Bordeaux includes a variety of details about the thriving 'walled' port as it looked in the 15th century. Sebastian Munster (b. 1488-d.1552) was born in Mainz Germany and is known as one of the most respected scholars of his time.

estimated value: $1,800

"A charming, lush, round, generous Lynch-Bages, the 1999 offers plenty of sweet black currant fruit, damp earth, licorice, cedarwood and spicy herb-like characteristics. Medium-bodied, savory and broad in the mouth with no hard edges, this fully mature effort is a somewhat underrated vintage for this estate..." 90 points - Robert Parker

Rhys Vineyards - Unique Collection of Magnums and Bottles of this Cult Classic

estimated value: $1,010

- 1 - bottle Rhys Vineyards Horseshoe Vineyard Chardonnay 2014
- 1 - Magnum Rhys Vineyards Horseshoe Vineyard Chardonnay 2014
- 1 - bottle Rhys Vineyards Horseshoe Vineyard Pinot Noir 2014
- 1 - Magnum Rhys Vineyards Horseshoe Vineyard Pinot Noir 2014
- 1 - bottle Rhys Vineyards Family Farm Vineyard Pinot Noir 2014
- 1 - Magnum Rhys Vineyards Family Farm Vineyard Pinot Noir 2014

These are the “pinch-me brilliant wines” of Rhys Vineyards and they are only sold via mailing list which is full - so this might be your best chance to get your hands on some! Rhys is a classic case of one man’s obsession run splendidly amok: Kevin Harvey. The biggest problem with the Rhys wines is that so little is made. Grand cru Burgundy is a high level to try to emulate. But Mr. Harvey is a man with a mission, and the means and determination to get there.

“The 2014 Chardonnay Horseshoe Vineyard reveals lots of crushed rock, caramelized white currant, white peach and a distinct saltiness all emerging from the glass.” 95 points - The Wine Advocate

“A wine I think is the best vintage to date, the sensational 2014 Pinot Noir Horseshoe Vineyard comes from one of the top sites in all of the Santa Cruz Mountains. Incredibly complex, with layers of sweet black cherries, black raspberries, barnyard, wild herbs and spice, it has medium to full-bodied richness, a pure, impeccably balanced texture and a great finish...” 95 points - The Wine Advocate “Described as the most Sonoma-like of their Pinot Noirs, the 2014 Pinot Noir Family Farm Vineyard comes from clay soils and sees roughly 40% whole clusters and one-third new French oak. This rounded, supple and sexy Pinot Noir has sumptuous aromas and flavors of spiced red fruits, smoked herbs, forest floor and spice. Drink this beauty anytime through 2024.” 91 points - The Wine Advocate

estimated value: $700

Terry Theise, winner of the James Beard Foundation Award for Outstanding Wine and Spirits Professional, is an importer of boutique wines from Germany, Austria, and Champagne. Terry's viewpoint opens a door to a different world of wine, one that does not disconnect this agricultural 'product' from its human and emotional element. While his writing is vivid, colorful, and wildly entertaining (think Monty Python meets George Carlin), the message is clear and essential.

You and a guest will enjoy dinner with Terry at a restaurant in Boston, complete with rare wines from Terry's private cellar.

Restrictions: Mutually agreeable date. Expires May 2019.

- 1 - Double Magnum Château Malmaison Moulis-en-Médoc 1995
- 1 - Magnum Couly Dutheil Clos de l'Echo Chinon 1995
- 1 - Magnum Delectus Merlot 2011
- 1 - Magnum Domaine Chignard Les Moriers Fleurie 2014
- 1 - Magnum Domaine Marcel Lapierre Morgon 2015
- 1 - Magnum Sea Smoke Cellars Southing Pinot Noir 2012

Bigger is always better! Demand for large format bottles has grown substantially in the past few decades. The appeal of large formats is that they age more slowly than the standard 750ml bottle. Large formats allow collectors to share their wine with friends more easily, make wonderful wedding and anniversary gifts and are a dramatic addition to anyone's wine cellar.

Parry Cellars Package

estimated value: $290

Since Stephen couldn't be with us this year he sent a signed magnum of Parry Cellars 2014 cabernet along with two 750ml bottles - one to enjoy now and the other later!

Parry Cellars is Napa Valley's smallest family-owned, single vineyard winery. David Abreu originally planted the vineyard in 1990 that is now sustainably farmed and certified under the Napa Green Program. The wine (only 200 plus or minus cases a year) is made by Andy Schweiger, who specializes in small production, high quality wines. Impeccable balance, luscious fruit and an intriguing finish are the hallmarks of Parry Cellars cabernets.

6 - bottles Domaine Arnoux-Lachaux Bourgogne Pinot Fin 2009

estimated value: $240

"This wine is made from a blend of different blocks in several villages such as Chambolle-Musigny, Vosne Romanée and Nuits Saint Georges. This wine is called Pinot Fin because the big majority of the vines in these vineyards are still from the old rootstock called like this, which is producing lots of berries which are millerandés (small and very concentrated) and gives to the wine its concentration and complexity." - Winemaker Notes

1 - Magnum Joseph Phelps Vineyards Insignia 1997

estimated value: $800

100 points from Robert Parker! The 1997 Insignia is "an inky/plum/purple color is accompanied by a stunning bouquet of violets, charcoal, creme de cassis and a hint of toast. Prodigious when it hits the palate with a full-bodied expansiveness, there is not a hard edge to be found in the 1997, only velvety tannins, compelling depth and fruit intensity, and stunning purity. It is a perfect expression of Napa viticulture and wine that should continue to age effortlessly for two decades or more. The 1997 Insignia is a 20,000-case blend of 83% Cabernet Sauvignon, 14% Merlot and 3% Petit Verdot, with 60% coming from estate vineyards and 40% from growers. The alcohol came in at 13.8%." - Robert Parker

In 1974, Joseph Phelps introduced Insignia, "California's first blend of traditional Bordeaux grapes. Insignia became recognized as an elite Napa cabernet. Many other winemakers followed Phelps Vineyard's lead, with names like Opus One, Rubicon and Dominus, and cult cabernets eventually used just the name of the producer, like Screaming Eagle or Harlan Estate." - New York Times

1 - bottle Château Margaux 2011

estimated value: $500

Château Margaux is one of the five First Growths ranked in the 1855 Bordeaux Classification. Château Margaux has been well regarded in history and stands among Thomas Jefferson's favorite châteaux. Margaux is often considered the most "feminine" of the First Growths.

"The renowned Château Margaux's 2011 boasts a dark ruby/plum color as well as a fragrant perfume of spring flowers, sweet, supple, well-integrated tannins, medium body, and the elegance and nobility expected from a great first-growth...It possesses finesse, elegance, purity and suppleness. The wine is surprisingly approachable already yet should keep for 15-20 years." 93 points - Robert Parker (Drink Date: 2014-2034)

6 - bottles Aubert Larry Hyde & Sons Vineyard Chardonnay 2014

estimated value: $900

"The 2014 Chardonnay Larry Hyde & Sons has a greenish hue to its light-gold color, a fresh, lively nose of poached pears, citrus oil, honeysuckle, a hint of pineapple and tangerine. This is a beautiful, full-bodied Chardonnay to drink over the next decade or more. Mark Aubert continues to set the bar incredibly high for the world-class quality of his Burgundian-styled, remarkable Chardonnays, which come from relatively cool sites spread from Rutherford in Napa Valley to the far reaches of the Sonoma Coast. Aubert is at the top of his game, and it is hard to believe any Chardonnay winemaker in the world is turning out a half-dozen Chardonnays at this qualitative level year in and year out. The 2014 Chardonnays have been on the market and were quickly sold out to the winery's mailing list when offered earlier this year. If you haven't experienced the incredible talent of Mark Aubert, it's about time, but it's getting impossible to access his wines, given the massive interest from serious collectors and amateurs of great wine." 95 points - Robert Parker

3 - bottles Fairchild Estate Cabernet Sauvignon 2006

3 - bottles Jericho Canyon Vineyard Cabernet Sauvignon 2006

3 - bottles Pride Mountain Vineyards Cabernet Sauvignon 2006

The hard work of cellaring for these wines is complete and they are ready to drink! "Cabernet Sauvignon has been referred to as the king of red wine grapes. Cabernet Sauvignons and blends where the variety predominates are some of the most prized wines produced in California. The grape is also the main ingredient in blends for many of the famous red wines in the world. Cabernet Sauvignons are dry, full flavored and made to be long lived for many labels." - Wine Institute of California

1 - Magnum Morlet Family Vineyards Coup de Coeur Chardonnay 2009

estimated value: $250

"...Bright yellow-gold. Complex aromas of orange, honey, minerals, coconut and vanilla. Wonderfully generous and glyceric: this really melts in your mouth. For all its concentration and plumpness, this is magically vibrant and firm. I like the fact that this wine is made with just one-third new look, like Morlet's other chardonnays. Finishes with palate-staining persistence." 95 points - Vinous

"Turley Wine Cellars has long been one of the more enviable wine operations in California. Larry Turley should, and does, receive enormous credit for nearly single-handedly preserving many of the heritage old vine Zinfandel sites that exist in northern California...This estate produces nearly thirty single vineyard Zinfandels and Petite Syrahs, all from organically farmed vineyards. Natural yeast fermentations have always been the rule, and the percentage of new oak used has dropped from a high of 30% to about half that..." - Robert Parker

City of Angels with Redbird & Bill Maher estimated value: $900

Head to Los Angeles for an amazing adventure! Once you land, you will head to a luxury hotel for a one night stay! We would like to welcome Neal Fraser to his first Heart's Delight! You can visit him for dinner for two at Redbird. The menu features seasonal small and large format plates ranging from snacks or "kickshaws" to entrees meant to be enjoyed by the whole table, complemented with desserts by Pastry Chef Kasra Ajdari. Located in downtown Los Angeles, Redbird is carved into one of the city's most historic architectural gems, inside the former rectory building of Vibiana - the cathedral-turned-event-venue also owned and operated by the Frasers and their partners. Designer Robert Weimer and Amy Knoll Fraser created a dynamic space that pays homage to the cathedral next door and the existing timeless architecture by inserting simple modern forms to complement rather than overtake the feel of the rooms. The result is a warm and comfortable considered space.

Next, you and three friends will go see the Emmy-nominated Bill Maher with your VIP tickets. Bill Maher covers the week's news and features a panel of guests, including actors, activists, politicians, musicians, comedians and more. Bill Maher is know for being "Outspoken... never afraid to blast politicians, pundits, and presidents." – Variety

You are in for a treat!

Restrictions: Bill Maher - Expires November 16, 2018. Subject to availability.

12 - bottles Château Lafite Rothschild Carruades de Lafite 2000 (in original wooden box) estimated value: $3,360

Château Lafite Rothschild's second wine, Carruades de Lafite presents similar characteristics to the Grand Vin, but with its own personality linked to a higher proportion of Merlot and to specific plots that are used to produce Carruades. The name comes from the Carruades plateau, a group of plots acquired in 1845 just next to the vines on the Château hilltop. "A brilliant second wine, the 2000 Carruades de Lafite shows wonderfully sweet lead pencil shavings intermixed with an elegant black cherry and cassis nose. A wine of tremendous purity, medium body, and the tell-tale Lafite elegance..." 90 points - Robert Parker

351 Magnum Young Inglewood Estate Cabernet Sauvignon 2012 estimated value: $175

"The 2012 Young Inglewood Estate Cabernet Sauvignon is a pleasure to look at, smell and taste. It is also the first Estate vinted in our new winery, which was finished (just!) in time to receive the fruit. The wine's expressive nose offers aromas of wild herbs, graphite and ripe black fruits. Smooth and integrated, the wine delivers a velvety mouthfeel, with black cherry and cassis complemented by subtle notes of damp earth and forest floor. Its finish is long and sensuous." - Winemaker Notes

3 - bottles Château Climens 1975

estimated value: $900

"The 1975 Climens has a glorious bouquet with beautifully defined citrus fruit, wild honey, orange blossom and just a touch of old antique furniture. It blossoms in the glass. The palate is fresh and vibrant with a killer line of acidity. This is still fresh and tense with marmalade, grapefruit, mandarin, bitter orange and brown spices. It feels long and tender in the mouth: quite a powerful Climens at its peak." 93 points - The Wine Advocate (Drink Date: 2015-2035)
