2 - bottles Oceano Chardonnay 2017

estimated value: $80

Rachel Martin is back! But this time with her new venture, Oceano which is 100% chardonnay hand-harvested at Spanish Springs in San Luis Obispo County. This SIP certified sustainable vineyard is nestled in the slopes of Price Canyon on the southern edge of the Edna Valley. Separated by a small mountain range it is the closest vineyard to the Pacific in California. It is California chardonnay for the discriminating wine lover, atypical in its class. Oceano is fermented and aged in French oak barrels, this wine is elegant and textural and citrus fruit and flowers dominate the nose. The palate is accessible, but with tension, something very rarely found in Chardonnay wines from California. The 2017 Oceano has “a vibrant nose which is highlighted by guava passion fruit and lily with lingering notes of cantaloupe, grapefruit and vanilla. A grapefruit attack leads to a juicy mouth of pear melon, pineapple, lime and brioche. The lemon zest finish lingers long.” – winemaker notes

estimated value: $360

1 - Magnum George Leras Family Vineyard Pinot Noir 2017

1 - Magnum George Hansen Vineyards Pinot Noir 2017

1 - Magnum George Ceremonial Vineyard Pinot Noir 2017

The 2017's are sold out so here is your chance to get some! George Levkoff is a Heart's Delight veteran and our favorite one-man-show. We are so sorry that George is not able to be with us, but he was generous enough to send these large formats from the 2017 vintage. George writes, "Fire and fury brought death and destruction to the Russian River Valley in October 2017. Dozens of lives were lost, and thousands of residential and business structures burned to as from sixty mile an hour wind driven fires. These grapes were picked and in the barrel in September. The 2017 harvest marks the 15th for this label." George Levkoff crafts Pinot Noir the "old-school" Burgundian way, and savvy sommeliers around the country keep spreading his gospel. And nowhere more so than Las Vegas, where, at last count, George Pinot Noirs grace the wine lists of nearly 100 top restaurants (Joel Robuchon, Guy Savoy, Spago and Picasso to name a few). In California, you'll find George on just about every top restaurant wine list in the state such as The French Laundry, Cut, Gordon Ramsay and ink. The eye-widening list is a testament to the power of these beautiful wines.

1 - Magnum Flâneur La Belle Promenade Chardonnay 2016

estimated value: $100

To be a Flâneur is not about wasting time.... it's about regaining time that has been lost. That is the philosophy that prompted Marty Doerschlag to create Flâneur Wines and we are thrilled that he is able to be with us for his first Heart's Delight. The magnum of La Belle Chardonnay shows, "Well integrated use of French oak adds spice and texture to this complex wine with a lingering finish. While this wine is enjoyable in youth it will gain in weight and complexity with short to medium term cellaring. La Belle Promenade is 33 acres of mainly Saum and some Nekia soils, with the western portion of the site consisting of a thick layer of fractured basalt. The vineyard was planted in 2014 to 26 acres of Pinot Noir, 5 acres of Chardonnay and 2 acres of Pinot Meunier. Due in part to its high elevation, this site allows for great diversity in concert with our other estate vineyard, Flanerie." – winemaker notes

1 - Magnum Solitaire MonoClone Pinot Noir Magnum 2013

estimated value: $225

In Burgundy, a winemaker may reserve a special barrel for friends and family. They call this barrel Soliste. SOLITAIRE defines the origin and the promise of Soliste. From one barrel only 52 cases of 750s and 78 Magnums of Solitaire were produced. Although it hurts to part with so few bottles, sharing this special release with you, the very few that have been loyal supporters of our journey, fills us with joy and pride. Welcome back to Claude Koeberle from Soliste! The 2013 is described as "a wine of great class, very expressive, as the layers are all tightly woven into a density that is a mouth full, chewy at first, then creamy and rich. The wine as an unparalleled elegance of red fruit, velvety raspberry and groseilles compote carries on with exotic layers of tart pomegranate and violets interlaced with fatty vanilla bean, jasmine, and cardamom. Well balanced with a driving finish that is an exercise in grace and harmony. The satin texture creates an elegant, creamy, length that one can only find in wines of much older vintages." – winemaker notes

SOLITAIRE comes from a secluded Pinot Noir vineyard located in the Sonoma Coast appellation near Occidental. The site has a northeastern exposure, a gentle slope and is in the middle of a spectacular redwood forest. Just 6 miles from the Pacific Ocean on the western coastal range, this cool vineyard is meticulously tended and sustainably farmed.

Harlan Bond 1999 (in original wooden box)

estimated value: $550

1 - bottle Harlan Bond Melbury 1999

1 - bottle Harlan Bond Vecina 1999

In celebration of our 20th Anniversary this generous and clever donor has offered wine from Bond's inaugural vintage as well: 1999.

The name Melbury is in homage to an historic area in London, where the estate owners reside much of the year. Since its debut with the 1999 vintage, the consistent hallmarks of Melbury have been plush red fruits (currants, bing cherries), redolent with spice and the scent of violets. Elegance and a supple texture define the structure of this wine. The particular exposition of this rocky 7-acre hillside vineyard is southerly overlooking Lake Hennessey, allowing the vines to capture the morning sun yet moderating afternoon temperatures.

Bond Vecina 1999 is coined from the Spanish word for neighbor. This is their endeavor with the property situated directly southeast of the BOND winery. The beautifully terraced volcanic soil slopes of this property reside in Oakville's western foothills. The 11-acre site faces due east and is the recipient of cool morning sun. Vecina, which appeared with the 1999 vintage in the inaugural BOND release, is always powerful, intense and savory. Vecina's other hallmarks are blackberry fruit, with wild forest floor and mineral associated overtones.

1 - Magnum Chateau Montelena The Montelena Estate Cabernet Sauvignon 2003

estimated value: $250

The wine is a typically bright ruby red, with opaque density and color, which leads to a nice array of aromas: sweet black currant jam, with hints of black cherry and flowers. There is much fruit in the nose, not unexpected considering the excellent ripeness achieved in this vintage. The unique blend of soils in our vineyard leads to very pleasing layers of complexity, and I particularly like the evident menthol-cedar note attributable to the volcanic soil component. On the palate it delivers intense, broad and sweet fruit, layered with spicy cherry, and even a bit of chocolate. The overall structure is ripe and rich, pure and well delineated. It is very much in the Montelena Estate style, in which vineyard flavors drive the wine. It is a very structured Cabernet from a great growing year, and it will greatly reward you after a few more years of cellaring.

3 - bottles Hawley Winery Merlot 2004 & Deluxe Wine Case

estimated value: $200

Bring home these three bottles and enjoy them with a new deluxe mahogany leather travel wine case with service for two! "From our estate on Bradford Mountain, where we have been growing award winning Merlot for 25 years. It is organically grown; without chemical pesticides, herbicides or fertilizers. We use the highest quality French oak barrels for 2 years of aging. 8% Cabernet Sauvignon from our estate was blended to give the wine more depth and length in the finish. The 2004 vintage really captures the terroir of Bradford Mountain; with complex earthy notes along with plumb, raspberry and floral violet with hints of tobacco and butterscotch. What I admire about my father's winemaking style, and this wine in particular, is the depth and dynamic nature that keep the wines continually developing and changing in the glass and in the bottle. Great wine never goes out of style!" – winemaker notes

96 Point Robert Parker Duo

estimated value: $215

1 - bottle Dunn Vineyards Howell Mountain Cabernet Sauvignon 2013

1 - bottle Pahlmeyer Napa Valley Chardonnay 2015

"Deep garnet-purple in color, the 2013 Cabernet Sauvignon Howell Mountain is a little closed at this stage, offering glimpses at fresh blackcurrants, blackberry pie and crushed black plums with nuances of cedar chest, underbrush, black truffles, charcuterie and espresso. Medium to full-bodied, it packs in the muscular fruits, with very firm, ripe, grainy tannins and plenty of freshness, finishing long with many expressive earth layers." 96 points Robert Parker.

"The 2015 Chardonnay, which comes from both Old Wente and Dijon clones, is off the estate property on Atlas Peak. It has that noteworthy greenish hue to its light-gold color, which I consider a high-sign of quality. Orange blossom, tangerine oil, mango, subtle smoky wood, a full-bodied texture, terrific purity and acidity, great fruit and a long, long finish are the stuff of great California Chardonnay. This cuvée also has a phenomenal track record for aging for at least 7-10 years, and in certain vintages even longer." 96 points Robert Parker
