DRIVING EQUITABLE HEALTH IMPACT

This essential graphic shows at a glance how the Association is driving health impact as an organization. What's changed? "Healthy living" is now "total health and well-being," "advancing health and well-being" is now "connecting mind, heart and body" and "building mental well-being" is now "building health and well-being."

The American Heart Association is committed to driving equitable health impact in the Greater Washington Region through key priority areas: reducing risk in women, addressing community need, ending e-cigarette & tobacco use, controlling blood pressure and improving nutrition security and building health & well-being. Equity is always at the center of our work, and it will continue to guide all that we do.

Through our focus on these key impact areas, we can improve the health and well-being of the Greater Washington Region, while saving and improving countless lives.
